T-H Invoked As Dockers Hit 2 Ports

NEW YORK (AP)—Longshoremen quit work on Atlantic and Gulf Coast ports today after their contract expired. Within 10 hours, President Kennedy invoked the Taft-Hartley Act in an attempt to end the work stoppage.

The presidential action, the first step in Taft-Hartley machinery, appeared to be the only immediate likelihood of bringing the unionized longshoremen back to docks from New England to Texas.

Prospects for quick agreement on a new work contract seemed remote.

The White House said Kennedy would create a board of inquiry to report to him by Thursday on the nature and scope of the work stoppage. On the basis of the board's report, the President will decide whether to order the usual 80-day cooling off period.

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, during his administration, used a Taft-Hartley injunction to halt a waterfront strike that tied up more than 200 American-flag ships for a week.

No Contract, No Work

The AFL-CIO International Longshoremen's Association—ILA—ordered its 7,000 members off the job as of 12:01 a. m. when the union's old contract expired with 145 shipping firms.

William V. Bradley, ILA president, issued a midnight statement from the union's New York headquarters, saying: "The mandate of our membership of 'no contract, no work' is now in effect."

"There is to be no work performed on the waterfront from Maine to Brownsville, Tex., until a favorable contract is signed."

Negotiations collapsed Saturday between the ILA and the New York Shipping Association, the employers' group here, after weeks of fruitless bargaining.

In an effort to clear ship cargoes before the longshoremen's work stoppage more than 10,000 of them labored at overtime wages Saturday and Sunday at 52 New York harbor piers.

Gulf Coast Ports

The longshoremen's action stopped all operations at Gulf Coast ports where pickets were posted initially at both Houston and Galveston, Tex. Pickets also were ordered posted in New Orleans, ILA officials there said.

The employers had sought to have ILA work gangs reduced from their present 20-man strength to smaller groups of from 8 to 16.

The union demanded wage increases over the current $3.02 hourly rate.

Dutchess to Probe Blaze at College

Firemen from Poughkeepsie, Fairview and Roosevelt Fire District, Town of Hyde Park, battled flames early Sunday that swept through a 50 by 200-foot student classroom building on the property of the Dutchess Community College, Creek Road, Town of Poughkeepsie.

A spokesman for the Fairview fire department said the origin of the fire will be investigated.

An unidentified taxicab driver employed by Vets Cabs, Poughkeepsie, discovered the fire and radioed the company dispatcher, who immediately notified fire alarm headquarters at Poughkeepsie.

Flames Through Roof

Fairview firemen were dispatched to the college at 5:45 a. m. yesterday, and on arrival they found the center section of the L-shaped building completely involved with fire. Flames were shooting through the roof.

Fairview Fire Chief Donald MacDonald, who was in command at the scene, summoned aid through mutual aid. Truck 2 and Engine 5 from the Poughkeepsie City fire department and Engines 2 and 3 from Roosevelt Fire Department, Hyde Park, responded.

As College Vice-Chairman

No Confirmation Made Of Rigby Resignation

A report that Harry Rigby Jr. of Kingston, who was recently named assistant chairman of the board of trustees for the Ulster County Community College, had resigned as assistant chairman was unconfirmed today.

Keating Predicts Sweeping Win in Paltz GOP Speech

Senator Kenneth B. Keating was the principal speaker at the annual chicken barbecue of the New Paltz Republican Club Sunday. The senator was introduced to the 400 persons gathered at the occasion by Assemblyman Kenneth L. Wilson, chairman of the Ulster County Republican Committee.

Acting as toastmasters were Peter J. Savago, supervisor of Town of New Paltz and Fred DuBois, county treasurer, on whose farm the barbecue was held.

Sheriff Claude Bell was introduced as well as town, county and club officials.

"Successful Operation"

Senator Keating opened his remarks by saying that the present Republican Administration in New York state came into office like a doctor coming into the room of a patient who needs an emergency operation.

"No operation is a pleasure, and this one wasn't but it was successful, it removed the growth of debt that had been eating away at everybody's income, it restored health, it vitalized the entire economy, it took New York state out of the fiscal hospital and put it back at work. It turned Spend-as-You-Go into Prosper-as-You-Grow," Keating said.

In the first year of operation the pay as you go policy turned what was a potential $700 million deficit into a $5 million surplus. New York state pays only one-half of one percent of its budget on interest on debt compared to 5 1/2 percent by New York City and 10 percent spent by the federal government.

"When the New York State citizen-voter gets his choice between this kind of performance, and the kind of promises the Democrats chewed their pencils to think up, and put in their plenary platform at Syracuse, what do you think the answer is going to be?" Senator Keating asked.

Senator Keating predicted a tremendous and sweeping popular victory.

IBM Trainee Dies, Hurt In 209 Crash Saturday

A 19-year-old U. S. Air Force youth, critically injured early Saturday when thrown from his car which went out of control, sheered off a utility pole and damaged gas pumps in a service station in the Town of Ulster, died at 2:30 p. m. the same day at Kingston Hospital.

Authorities said Thomas Brown of Tulsa, Okla., who was assigned to special classes at International Business Machines Corp., plant at Kingston, was staying at Rose Marie Cabins, Lake Katrine. He suffered head and internal injuries at 2 a. m. Saturday, when his car left Route 209 (Albany Avenue Extension), about a half-mile north of the Kingston City line and crashed into a utility pole, troopers said.

State police said the car proceeding north hit the pole, struck a light pole in Albany Avenue Shell Station, tore out one gasoline pump, flung the driver through a wooden fence, continued on through a sign as it left the gas station and rolled into an adjacent service station, Mattices Amoco Station, where the car came to rest.

Ulster County Coroner Francis J. McCordie released the body to Air Force authorities at Stewart Air Force Base, Newburgh.

Troopers Richard Ryan and James Conrad of Kingston station investigated.

Another Air Force student studying at IBM, Terrance C. Salsman, 25 of Route 1, Box 241, Saugerties was injured Friday night when his car struck a utility pole on the West Saugerties Road at Centerville about 500 feet north of Route 212, Kingston troopers said.

State police reported Salsman's 1962 convertible was proceeding north on West Saugerties Road, rounding a curve to the right, skidded out of control, went off the west side of the highway and struck and demolished a utility pole.

He was treated by Dr. Richard Wenger of Saugerties, at the scene. Troopers Ryan and Conrad investigated. The mishap occurred at 11 p. m.

Meredith Enrolled, Area Secure After Fatal Riots

Inescapable Duty: Kennedy Stand on Troops at College

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy declares it was his inescapable duty to call out troops when Mississippi defied court orders to enroll a Negro at the state university.

Grim, yet conciliatory at times, the President said Sunday night in a short radio-television address to the nation that he hoped it would be unnecessary to use troops, even though conciliation and persuasion had failed to obtain admission of James H. Meredith.

Keeps Vigil at Phone

After his address, Kennedy sat beside the telephone in his office getting up-to-the-minute reports on rioting, gunfire and teargas sweeping across the university campus at Oxford — and the arrival on the scene of federal military reinforcements.

Courts of law, all the way up to the Supreme Court, Kennedy said in his speech, ordered Meredith's admission into the university. When the orders were defied and those who tried to carry them out were threatened with arrest and violence, the U. S. Court of Appeals "made clear the fact that the enforcement of its order had become an obligation of the United States government."

"Even though this government had not originally been a party to the case," the chief executive said, "my responsibility as President was therefore inescapable. I accept it."

Deeply Regrets Action

"I deeply regret the fact that any action by the executive branch was necessary in this case but all other avenues and alternatives, including persuasion and conciliation, had been tried and exhausted."

The President had put off his address for 11 hours from 7:30 p. m. to 10 p. m. In the interval, U. S. marshals had installed Meredith on the Ole Miss campus and governor, Ross Barnett, had acknowledged "we are physically overpowered."

Barnett, who has been cited for contempt for spurning court orders to permit Meredith's enrollment, still protested hotly that the federal government was destroying the Constitution and trampling on state sovereignty. But he said in a statement he abhorred prospects of bloodshed and was urging all Mississippian and instructing state officers to "do everything in their power to preserve peace and to avoid violence in any form."

Police Checking Cause of Blaze, Vandals, Thefts

Local police were asked over the weekend and early today to investigate a fire of suspected incendiary origin, apparent vandalism on a garage property, a school burglary attempt and two thefts.

A second suspected fire in two weeks damaged a vacant house at 9-11 Spruce Street, spread laterally to the attic and roof of an occupied house at 13 Spruce Street, and caused water damage on two floors of the latter early today.

Classrooms Ransacked

An attempt was made to enter a safe at School No. 3, and classrooms were ransacked, police said, and a pickup truck and car were damaged when they were hurled down a bank onto railroad tracks at the end of the garage property of the Jerry Martin Pontiac Inc., 708 Broadway.

Binoculars and a flashlight were reported stolen from the power boat of Alfred J. P. Sietz, of 236 Clinton Avenue, docked at the rear of his Kingston Venetian Blind Co. building, 32 Ferry Street, and some $20 worth of soda was reported taken from a truck at the 7-UP plant, Bruyn Avenue.

Firemen were called at 2:52 a. m. today for the fire in the vacant Spruce Street house.

Moscow-Peiping Rift Goes On, Soviet Snubs Program

TOKYO (AP) — The Soviet Union snubbed Red China's massive 13th anniversary celebration today, underlining the continuing rift between the giants of communism.

More than 500,000 persons marched through the Square of Heavenly Peace in Peiping, but not a single Soviet official of importance sat in the reviewing stand with Chinese leader Mao Tse-tung.

Evidence of continuing tension in Peiping's relations with Moscow was couched with admissions of shortcomings and mistake on the home front—and a hint that a purge of some size is continuing.

The ideological dispute dividing Red China and the Soviet Union was aggravated last week by the visit of Soviet President Leonid Brezhnev to Yugoslavia, a constant target of Chinese Communist criticism.

Premier Chou En-lai in a speech Sunday night lumped "modern revisionists"—apparently meaning Yugoslav President T. o and perhaps Soviet Premier Khrushchev—together with the United States imperialists and reactionaries who he said were trying to isolate Red China and force her to change her policies. Chou said such a campaign would never succeed.

The attack continued today in the keynote speech of Vice Premier-Foreign Minister Chen Yi in Peiping's Red Square. He called for unity in a struggle against "U. S. imperialist policies of aggression and war," an apparent dig at what Peiping considers a soft Soviet policy of peaceful co-existence with the West.

Khrushchev sent the usual telegram of congratulations, but he and other ranking Soviet leaders boycotted a rally in Moscow.

CAR IN FATAL CRASH—A 19-year-old U. S. Air Force student, attending classes at International Business Machines Corp., Kingston died Saturday afternoon of injuries sustained when the car (above) went out of control on Albany Avenue Extension earlier in the day and catapulted the youth from the vehicle as it crashed through one of two gasoline service stations in its path. The mishap occurred at 2:30 a. m. and the youth, Thomas Brown, died in Kingston Hospital about 12 1/2 hours later. The youth was flung out of the vehicle and through a wooden fence as the car plowed through the Albany Avenue Shell Station hitting a gas pump, light pole and sign, troopers reported.

After his address, Kennedy sat beside the telephone in his office getting up-to-the-minute reports on rioting, gunfire and teargas sweeping across the university campus at Oxford — and the arrival on the scene of federal military reinforcements.

Two Killed, 20 Injured On Campus Bayonets and Gas Cause Uneasy Lull

OXFORD, Miss. (AP) — The University of Mississippi enroled James H. Meredith, a Negro, as a student today. His presence on campus had sparked night-long rioting in which two persons died.

The 29-year-old Air Force veteran thus became the first Negro knowingly admitted to Ole Miss in 114 years.

Bitter, Stubborn End

It was not until 6:15 a. m. CST today—almost 11 hours after the rioting started—that Brig. Gen. Charles Billingslea, commander of federal troops in Mississippi, was able to say, "I now declare this area secure."

Massed federal power — using bayonets and tear gas—forced the enrollment upon a bitter and stubborn state whose Gov. Ross Barnett had sworn to go to jail rather than submit.

Gov. Barnett indirectly gave up physical resistance Sunday in a public statement to his citizens. President Kennedy broadcast a nationwide appeal for public order.

Still, aroused students—and the students said gun-fire outsiders—exploded into wild disorder even as President Kennedy made his plea.

Stays at Dormitory

Armed escorts — either federal marshals or regular troops—took Meredith into the Lyceum, the aged administration building of Ole Miss, about 8:15 a. m.

Because of the Sabbath, University officials had refused to complete admission Sunday when Meredith first arrived on the Ole Miss campus. He had stayed in a dormitory overnight.

The hills and woods of the Ole Miss campus didn't look today as they did when Meredith arrived. When Meredith went to be registered, incredible litter clogged the campus streets—the hulks of more than a half-dozen burned out cars and trucks, the glittering shards of soft drink bottles, expended gas shells, bricks and stones.

93 Are Arrested

Two had died, 20 had been injured, 93 had been arrested. Besides seven burned out cars and trucks, 20 other vehicles had been badly damaged.

The bayonets and the tear gas and the riot sticks brought an uneasy recess in the rioting, but it took nine hours during which U. S. marshals were pinned down in the Lyceum and sniper bullets of the century-old structure.

Slowly the bayonets forced the rioters back, dispersing them, finally, into the woods and the dormitories of the 640-acre campus.

Military police, 5th grad 134.

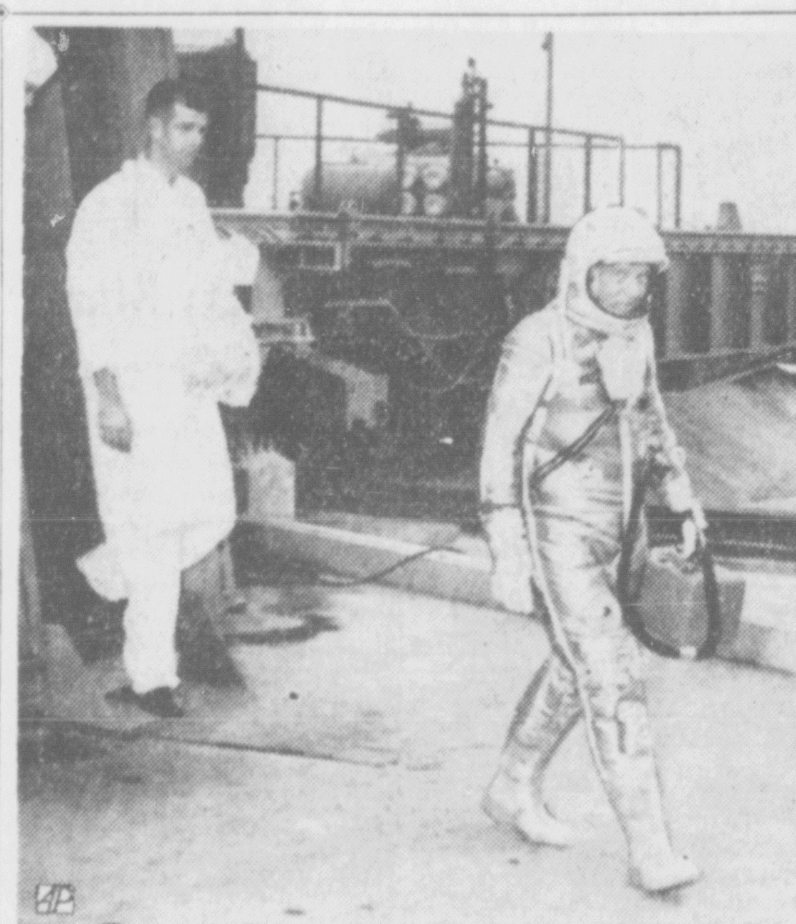

Military police arrested 93 as they swept back the rioters. A Justice Department official said each could be subject to penalties totalling 20 years and a $20,000 fine.

He said the charges could range from assaulting a federal marshal to rebellion or seditious conspiracy.

Regular troops lined up around the campus. Estimates put their strength at 1,000 men.

From the depths of the campus came a muffled, booming from scattered elements of die-hard

AFTER FLIGHT SIMULATION—Astronaut Walter Schirra, scheduled to make a six-orbit space flight Oct. 3, walks away from the elevator on pad 14 at Cape Canaveral after simulating the flight in his Sigma 7 capsule atop its Atlas missile. (AP Wirephoto)

Schirra Whirl Set Wednesday

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — Two major storms — tropical storm Daisy in the Atlantic and typhoon Dinah in the Pacific — posed possible threats today to Walter M. Schirra Jr.'s projected six-orbit space flight, scheduled Wednesday.

Daisy was an immediate threat. Dinah was not expected to cause trouble unless the shot is delayed.

NASA Keeps Close Watch

A spokesman for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration reported officials are keeping a close watch on the two weather systems.

Daisy boiled up 420 miles east of Puerto Rico Sunday and the San Juan Weather Bureau reported winds up to 50 miles an hour in a small area near the center. The storm was following a course which would create a heavy sea problem Wednesday near Grand Turk Island, the ocean area where Schirra would land if trouble forced his flight to be terminated after three orbits.

Dinah was reported in the Pacific southeast of Japan. It could bring rough weather to the recovery areas for the fourth, fifth and sixth orbits — east and northeast of Midway Island.

Almost perfect weather is a must in possible landing zones before the launching will be attempted.

Schirra kept in close contact with weather developments from his quarters in Hangar S. AT Cape Canaveral, where he is spending the final days before the flight.

At Hangar S, Schirra undergoes daily physical checks, dines on a low residue "let and makes repeated run-throughs of the flight plan. He left the Cape for a while Sunday for a swim in a pool in nearby Cocoa Beach.

All other elements of the mission, including Atlas booster rocket and capsule, were reported in excellent condition.

Rocky, Morgy Disagree on State Role For Colleges; Dem for Off-Track Vote

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — Gov. Rockefeller and Robert M. Morgenthau, his Democratic opponent in next month's election, were in sharp disagreement today on the size and effectiveness of the state's role in higher education.

The Republican governor, campaigning for re-election, issued the first of what he said would be a series of news releases entitled "Morgenthau's Mistakes" and argued that state aid to higher education had increased by 260 per cent during his administration.

He said it was $94 million in the fiscal year he took office and $244 million in the current fiscal year.

Morgenthau, in a radio interview Sunday, charged that Rockefeller was "just dead wrong" on the figures he had released on state aid to education.

Replying to a newsman's question about Rockefeller's claim that the state was first in the nation in financial aid to college students, Morgenthau said:

In the first place, in per capita aid to higher education, New York stands 49 out of 50 states.

The governor said Morgenthau's "utterances have been full of mis-statements of fact which I assume to be due to a lack of knowledge."

Westchester County Morgenthau's political activity was concentrated in New York City.

With the election little more than five weeks away, there were these other weekend developments:

1. Morgenthau came out in favor of a voter referendum on the question of legalized off-track betting as a means of raising revenue for the state treasury, although he said he had "some personal moral reservations" on the question.

2. Rockefeller declared his administration's consumer protection program was "unsurpassed" in state history.

3. A. A. Berle Jr., for many years a leader of the state's Liberal Party, said he would vote for Rockefeller, although the party has endorsed the Democratic candidates.

4. Democratic State Chairman William H. McKee charged the Republican Party was trying to buy the gubernatorial election. He said the GOP's "hefty campaign bankroll" included more than $2.5 million to buy time on radio and television.

5. The Republican State Campaign Committee announced a drive aimed at pushing voter registrations for the election to a record 7 million.

Congress's Hopes Of Adjourning by Weekend Dimmed

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST
WASHINGTON (AP) — Several "ifs" today beclouded hopes of the 87th Congress to adjourn for keeps by the end of this week.

There was a feeling of pessimism that what already has been the longest session since 1951 might carry over into next week. The White House held the main key to hopes of Congress before the November congressional elections. Many members already have left Washington.

On President Kennedy's desk is a bill passed overwhelmingly by the Senate and the House to provide a tax break for self-employed people who set up their own retirement programs. The President has not indicated whether he will sign it or veto it.

A possible roadblock to adjournment is a $2.2-billion water projects authorization bill which caused a blowup in the House Public Works Committee last Friday. Traditionally known as the "pork barrel" bill, the measure contains items of interest to many members of Congress who would be reluctant to go home without its enactment.

A pending catch-all money bill is being whipped into shape to finance the water projects measure.

Another potential barrier is a House-passed bill to hike postal rates about $603 million. The Senate tacked on a pay raise for federal employees estimated to cost more than $1 billion. Some influential House members feel the Senate bill is too liberal and may toss some technical hurdles in its path.

Dutch Rule Ends In W. New Guinea, U.N. Flag Hoisted

HOLLANDIA, New Guinea (AP) — Three centuries of Dutch colonial rule in Asia ended today with the raising of the United Nations flag over West New Guinea in a prelude to Indonesian takeover of the rugged jungle territory May 1. The U.N. flag was hoisted alongside the Dutch flag over the former Dutch governor's palace under an agreement providing for U.N. administration of the territory for the next seven months. The United Nations, with the backing of a 1,000-man Pakistani security force, will try to maintain order among the Papuan inhabitants until Indonesia moves in.

The two-stage transfer, devised by U.S. diplomat Ellsworth Bunker, was agreed on by Indonesia and the Netherlands after Indonesia threatened to take the territory by force. The Dutch had held on to West New Guinea in 1949 when Indonesia won sovereignty over the rest of the prewar Dutch East Indies.

Administration of New Guinea was handed over by acting Gov. Hain Veldkamp to Jose Rolz-Benito of Guatemala, temporary U.N. administrator.

A flag-raising ceremony in Hollandia's public plaza was cancelled to avoid provoking Papuans. Indonesia has promised them a self-determination plebiscite before the end of 1969.

Loss of New Guinea leaves the Netherlands with only two overseas territories — the relatively rich South American territory of Surinam, or Guiana, and the Netherlands Antilles in the Caribbean.

TWO MEN BADLY HURT in a Manor Avenue mishap late Sunday night were reported in serious condition today at local hospitals. George William Kahrs, 23, of 421 Wilbur Avenue, under treatment at Kingston Hospital for a chest contusion and laceration of the chest wall, was reported "serious" and Edward DuBois, 63, of 17 Prospect Street, was listed as in "poor condition" at the Benedictine Hospital. He suffered arm and ankle fractures and a scalp laceration.

A police report at 11:30 p. m. said a taxi (above) owned by D. P. Struble, of the Circle Cab Co. and driven by Kahrs, headed northwest on Manor Avenue near Kingston, failed to make a right turn and struck a tree. At right is Officer Ira Haddel, who investigated with patrolman John Kennedy. Dispatched to the scene also were detectives William Slover and Leonard Ellsworth. Ambulances from both the Fatum and Doctors' service were dispatched there.

Damage Is Heavy In County Blaze; Vol Is Overcome

The John Stenersen home on the Krumville-Krippebush Road was considerably damaged by fire Sunday afternoon. A person passing by reported smoke issuing from the premises and a call was received by the Olive Fire Department about 2:10 p. m.

On arrival at the scene Chief Albert Fox located the blaze, and although the property was located a short distance outside the Town of Olive fire bounds, the Town of Olive firemen fought the blaze. Later the Vly-Atwood department was notified of the fire.

Moses Stella of Olive Fire Company No. 4, was caught on the roof and overcome by smoke. He was taken in the chief's car, which is equipped with a stretcher, to Kingston Hospital by Deputy Sheriff Frank Neri Jr., where he was treated and later released.

Chief Fox reported the fire had gained considerable headway when the firemen arrived, and Companies No. 1, Olive Bridge; Company No. 2, Shokan and Company No. 4, Samsonville-Krumville, were at the scene. Six fog lines were put into operation and an auxiliary pump was set up at the old Beaver Pond across from the house to supply water.

The fire had apparently started at the electrical panel box from a defective electrical system and spread upward through the first floor and second floor bedrooms to an attic and the roof.

Family Out at Time
The upstairs bedrooms were considerably damaged by fire and there was smoke damage on the first floor. The fire mushroomed upward through partitions and broke out on the roof.

Members of the family were absent at the time the fire was discovered. Chief Albert Fox pointed out that next week is Fire Prevention Week and stressed the need for the proper inspection of all fire hazards, particularly electrical systems. If the householder is not competent to inspect the electrical systems, Chief Fox suggested that a competent person or an electrician be called to make such an inspection. He pointed out that apparently the fire Sunday could have been prevented had such an inspection been made.

Units from Central and Cornell stations, Rapid Union and Cordis companies, with Chief James M. Brett and Capt. Robert Hardwick in charge, responded to the call this morning.

See Work of Boys
Police said some person or persons, believed to be two boys, had started the pickup truck on the Pontiac garage property, had 1955 Pontiac. The car plunged down a 15-foot embankment onto the railroad tracks with the truck on top of it. Both were badly damaged.

School No. 3, police said, was entered through a coal chute, and an attempt was made to enter a small office safe by "peeling" it from the bottom. Detectives described the attempt as "amateurish." All classrooms were reported ransacked, but nothing of value was reported missing.

Seitz said his boat was entered after a screen was pushed in, and the flashlight and binoculars, the latter valued at $300, were taken. Detective Gurnsey Burger reported the binoculars recovered, and Seitz said the flashlight had been found. Burger said the binoculars were turned in by boys said they had found them. They were of the sturdy, military type.

Police found no signs of an attempt to enter the 7-Up bottling plant, Bruyn Avenue at the time, the soda was taken from the truck on the Cornell Street side.

Dutchess Youth Killed; 3 Hurt In Traffic Crash

A 17-year-old Dutchess County youth was fatally injured and three other persons were hurt, one critically, as the result of a highway crash which occurred shortly before midnight Saturday on Manchester Road, Town of LaGrange.

The fatality was witnessed by about 40 boys and girls who were on a hayride sponsored by the Town of Poughkeepsie Recreation Commission.

Died at Hospital
Sheriff Lawrence M. Quinlan said Mati Luik, 17, of Route 55, Town of LaGrange, died at Vassar Hospital 1:30 a. m. Sunday of massive internal hemorrhages and multiple injuries.

Luik was driving a car when it crashed into a farm tractor which was hauling a wagon carrying about 20 boys and girls. The force of the impact knocked a wheel from the tractor, driven by Ronald J. Corbin, 15, RD 3, Titusville Road, Town of LaGrange.

The Corbin boy was pinned under the tractor until freed by some of the older boys in the group. Miss Linda Hanka, 17, Town of LaGrange, a passenger in Luik's car, was critically injured. She was taken to Vassar Hospital, Poughkeepsie, suffering severe lacerations of the head, cerebral concussion and other injuries.

The Corbin boy was taken to St. Francis Hospital, Poughkeepsie, suffering multiple abrasions and contusions of the head and body. Glenn Heady, 15, of Wappingers Falls, was standing on the draw bar of the tractor when the crash occurred. He was taken to St. Francis Hospital, suffering head lacerations and bruises.

Sheriff at Scene
Sheriff Quinlan, who was at the scene, reported two farm tractors hauling wagons occupied by about 20 boys and girls in each were traveling along the highway when Luik's car approached. The sheriff said Luik passed one wagon and tractor, but apparently didn't see a wheel of the other tractor protruding across the center of the road.

Quinlan said investigation of the county's 33rd highway fatality since Jan. 1, will be continued.

Police said Devine was pronounced dead on arrival at Kingston Hospital after he was struck as he walked in front of a car driven by Freeman J. Elkquist, 53, of 86 Pine Grove Avenue. An autopsy revealed that he died of a fracture of the thoracic spinal column and a traumatic rupture of the thoracic aorta. His death was the second traffic fatality here in two days. William F. Seitz, 64, of 367 Hasbrouck Avenue, was fatally injured when struck by a car while crossing Hasbrouck Avenue Thursday night.

Part-Time Rule Is Charged by Lt. Gov. Nominee

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—Mayor John J. Burns of Binghamton, the Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor, continued campaigning in Western New York today, with speeches scheduled in Buffalo and Jamestown.

Sunday, Burns spoke to local Democratic groups here, in Olean and in Wellsville, charging that Gov. Rockefeller, who is being opposed for re-election by Robert M. Morgenthau, had not spent enough time "tending to the affairs of the state."

Rockefeller only wants to be re-elected so he can then make a bid for the presidency, Burns said.

Burns is running against incumbent Lt. Gov. Malcolm Wilson.

Polish-Americans Endorse Demos, Machinists Split

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Polish-American Democratic Clubs in New York State will support Democratic candidates in the November election, but they expressed regret that none of the nominees was of Polish extraction.

The state convention of the clubs gave the Democratic ticket a unanimous endorsement here Sunday.

In Binghamton, meanwhile, the State Council of Machinists split its support between the two parties. It voted Sunday to endorse Robert M. Morgenthau, the Democratic candidate for governor, and Sen. Jacob K. Javits, a Republican seeking re-election.

The Polish-American convention was attended by 140 delegates representing 49 clubs.

A convention official said the group had hoped the Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor would be Chester Gorski, president of the Buffalo Common Council. Instead, Mayor John J. Burns of Binghamton was chosen.

The clubs claim that about 500,000 Polish-Americans in the state vote solidly Democratic.

The Council of Machinists, a unit of the International Association of Machinists, said its endorsement of Morgenthau and Javits was based on the Democratic Party's labor policy and on a speech made before the machinists' convention Saturday.

The council claims 100,000 members in the state.

Radiologist Will Continue Stand On Medical Views

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—A Buffalo radiologist, who claims he has been blacklisted by the Erie County Medical Society for nearly two years because of positions he took on medical issues, says he will keep fighting for his views during his campaign for Congress.

Dr. Angelo S. D'Eloia, 56, told the Associated Press Sunday night that, despite limited funds, he would try to wage an intensive campaign as the Democratic candidate opposing incumbent Republican Rep. John R. Pillion.

He also asserted that he would continue to work for his views through the medical society. "The society is my society and I intend to stay in it," he said. "I'll fight harder."

D'Eloia explained that his practice depends on referrals from other doctors. He said that since he came out in November, 1960, against any increase in Blue Cross-Blue Shield rates, doctors have stopped referring patients to him and his practice has been ruined.

The society has denied blacklisting D'Eloia, and said he was still a member in good standing.

Worth Knowing

We were given some notes about a comparison between the north and south poles, which we thought you'd find interesting. Although the facts are general knowledge it is thought provoking to review the differences between these areas at the top and bottom of our world. The Arctic at the north is principally ocean and ice, whereas the Antarctic is a continent of 2,400,000 square miles of land and ice. The north pole location is at ice level in the Arctic Ocean, whereas at the south pole there is a 10,000 ft. high plateau, with surrounding mountainous peaks as high as 15,000 feet. Both areas are covered with tremendous sheets of ice but the Antarctic ice is as much as 2,000 feet thick, and there are great crevices in many areas. A strange fact is that although polar bears and other fur bearing animals live in the Arctic, the Antarctic supports virtually no life, not even plant life other than sparse lichens and mosses that for the brief summer period attach themselves to barren rocky spots. At the outer edges of Antarctica there are penguins, petrels, and some seals and sea lions, but the only living things found in abundance is a low level species of small wingless insects. Many facts become remarkable only when compared with other facts. That is why we invite your most searching comparisons. J. H. Byrne Chevrolet Corp., 731 Broadway, Phone FE 1-7545. Chemical Plant Is Idled by Strike

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y. (AP)—

The Hooker Chemical Co. has been struck by about 1,200 production, maintenance and shipping workers in a dispute over a new contract.

The walkout began at midnight Sunday night, following rejection of the workers' Niagara Hooker Employee Union (Independent) of a company contract offer, and a subsequent vote to strike by all 800 workers at a union membership meeting.

John S. Coey, Hooker vice president, said the only point of disagreement was that the union wanted an additional full holiday.

John Burden, president of the union, said the company's offer was "inadequate" on wages, fringe benefits and grievance procedures.

KINGSTON, NEW YORK, OCTOBER 1, 1962

REGISTER THIS WEEK

Friday and Saturday of this week are the first two days of registration in the City of Kingston for the general election to be held November 6. Hours of registration on these days will be from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m.

The two final days of registration will be held the following week on Friday and Saturday, October 12 and 13. The polls will be open Friday, October 12 from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m. and on Saturday, October 13 from 7 a. m. to 10 p. m.

Kingston residents who fail to go to the polls and register on one of these four days will be unable to vote in this general election.

In Ulster County outside the City of Kingston, registration will be on Saturday, October 6 from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m. and again on Saturday, October 13 when the hours will be from 1 p. m. to 10 p. m.

In these towns, where there is non-personal registration, names are carried on the registers if the registrant has voted at least once during four years. If you have not registered in a county district, anyone may place a name on the register by request as long as registering and voting qualifications are met.

Every citizen eligible to vote owes it to himself and the entire democratic process to express an opinion at the polls. But no one, except for the county districts of non-personal registration, can vote without first registering.

Many of our citizens each year disfranchise themselves by failing to register and vote. They are too lazy, too indifferent or "too busy" to spend the brief time and effort it takes to go to the polling booth.

A wise course is to make plans to register either this Friday or Saturday. Register early and be sure of your vote.

ASIAN FLU WARNING

U.S. Surgeon General Terry's warning that there may be a serious incidence of Asian flu this winter should not be taken lightly. In particular, it should not be taken lightly by those past the mid-point of life or those suffering from any of various chronic diseases.

It has become the usual thing in this country to shrug off "the flu" as though it were scarcely worth notice. When people have a heavy cold or feel a bit dragged out in winter they commonly say, "Oh, I guess I've just got the flu." This reflects a feeling that so-called flu, though unpleasant, is not dangerous.

Well, Asian flu is dangerous. For persons weakened by disease, it may be very dangerous indeed. During previous epidemics, it has caused many deaths.

So when the surgeon general of the United States urgently recommends prompt inoculation to combat this disease, he means what he's saying. And what he is saying had better be heeded by those who want to avoid a battle with a tough batch of germs.

ACCIDENT CAUSES

Most of the talk about auto safety relates to highway driving. This is understandable, since accidents on the open road are generally more serious than others because of the high speeds and certain other conditions of highway travel.

This focus on the highways should not be allowed to draw attention away from town and city driving. The accident rate in most communities is high enough to justify vigorous, sustained effort to improve matters.

It is worth noting that in one good-sized town a survey during the past several months showed excessive speed to be the major cause of accidents on downtown and residential streets. Other major causes of smashups were failure to yield the right of way, "tailgating"—that is, driving too close to other cars, disobeying traffic signals and moving across yellow center lines to pass or turn.

The chances are that such behavior causes most accidents in other towns as well. It is a list worth checking over, a list every driver could profitably match against his own performance at the wheel.

TELEVISION

I like to see "Perry Mason" on Saturday nights. I have been late to dinner; I have had my dessert and tea watching "Perry Mason" which sharpens the mind despite the fact that he always wins. It used to be a good combination, "Perry Mason" first and then "The Defenders." Suddenly I am told that this show is to be shifted to another night. Did the television company hold a plebiscite on the subject? Did they ask the viewers what they liked? Not at all. This is a take it or leave it business.

The other night, I sat in the dismantled living room of my house in the Berkshires, listening to the remarkable performance of the New York Philharmonic Orchestra under the direction of Leonard Bernstein and a massed chorus trained by Elmer Ross. I was indeed grateful to the Columbia Broadcasting System for this special service. But I did not appreciate the commercials of the Corning Glass Company. They were an interruption. Without accompanying music, they might have been passable. The commercial music clashed. It was like putting a hurdy-gurdy in the orchestra pit of the Metropolitan.

I suppose the Philharmonic had to have this to get the television time and business. Newton Minow, head of the Federal Communications Commission (FCC), is in a battle with television producers and the owners of stations as to how the airwaves—which are, by law, the property of the United States—should be used.

His basic idea is sound. He says in a "Look" article:

I think the viewers have the basic responsibility to say what they like or don't like—what they want and what they don't want. For example, many people are not aware that, in discussions of controversial issues by broadcasters, which we encourage, a broadcaster has an obligation to present alternative points of view. More listeners should take advantage of that opportunity to have opposing views heard.

"We get some tough ones once in a while. We had serious complaints about two programs on the networks, Biography of a Bookie Joint on CBS and The Battle of Newburgh on NBC. Our judgement, after analyzing the facts, was that the networks and stations had done a responsible and fair job, presenting the different sides of the issues."

One of the curses of television has been the "ratings." It is like the poll-taking in politics. For instance, when a pollster counts 802 persons and says that that represents the opinion of more than 5,712,000 voters, he is guessing. So-called sampling is an inexpensive method of hitting at an approximately correct answer by the wrong method. Minow says about ratings:

"I'm certainly startled that the broadcasters will use half a dozen families in a whole state as a sample, and say that's a fair reflection of what the people in that state want. But irrespective of that, you can't go only by ratings when you're trying to serve the entire public. Eighteen million people may prefer to see a particular program, rather than one 12 million people would like to see, but 12 million people must not be brushed aside. We need a wider range of choice to serve everyone."

This is a tough problem for the network and individual stations. It is also a problem for those who sell cigarettes, detergents and human odor destroyers. What market do they all want to reach? No one can answer that question accurately. The advertisers go by ratings and by their sales reports.

I once sat through a night listening only to commercials. I heard that suds are good and suds are bad; I heard that a roll-on lasts, that a roll-on does not last. I learned some commercial tunes and whistled them. I saw shapely girls in all forms of dress and undress. I listened to mother and daughter commercials where the daughter looked more like the mother than she should have, taking into account a difference of at least 20 years. In one case, the look of the two women caused me to wonder whether the daughter was born when the mother was five years old.

I then inquired of a large number of women how they decided. The told me that they try this and that, they ask questions from others. Do they buy what the commercial says? Sometimes—but it is never like what they say.

Put Up Your Guard Now

Against Influenza

By Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D.

Written for
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Every cough is not pneumonia although some persons like to think it is. By the same token every cold is not influenza.

Whereas the common cold may run its course with little or no fever, influenza is accompanied by a fever and, in general, the symptoms—headache, generalized aching, and weakness—are more severe. Influenza is much more likely to lead to pneumonia and that is what makes it a disease to be dreaded in spite of the new drugs now available to combat such complications.

There are several strains of influenza virus. Unfortunately, the vaccine that protects against one strain will not protect against the others. In order to overcome this difficulty several strains are sometimes combined in one vaccine, but this does not always solve the problem.

Influenza has the habit of spreading rapidly from city to city, state to state and now with our greatly accelerated means of travel, from continent to continent. A person who is exposed to influenza in Paris may feel fine, board a plane, land in the United States still feeling fine, and have a sudden onset of the disease that night or the next morning.

When an epidemic gets started our federal, state, and local health services get busy, track down the virus, and determine which strain is responsible.

This would help your doctor to know which vaccine to give you except for the fact that by then it is usually too late, because it takes at least four weeks to develop an immunity in this way. For this reason the United States Public Health Service, by studying worldwide patterns of the spread of influenza, tries to predict which strain is most likely to be troublesome well in advance of an epidemic.

This year they are putting their money on the Asian influenza that swept this country a few years ago.

They are urging vaccination early in the fall, especially for all persons over 45, for all who suffer from chronic debilitating diseases, for pregnant women, and persons who have close contact with the public such as doctors, dentists, nurses, ushers in movies, clerks in stores, bus drivers, school children, and teachers.

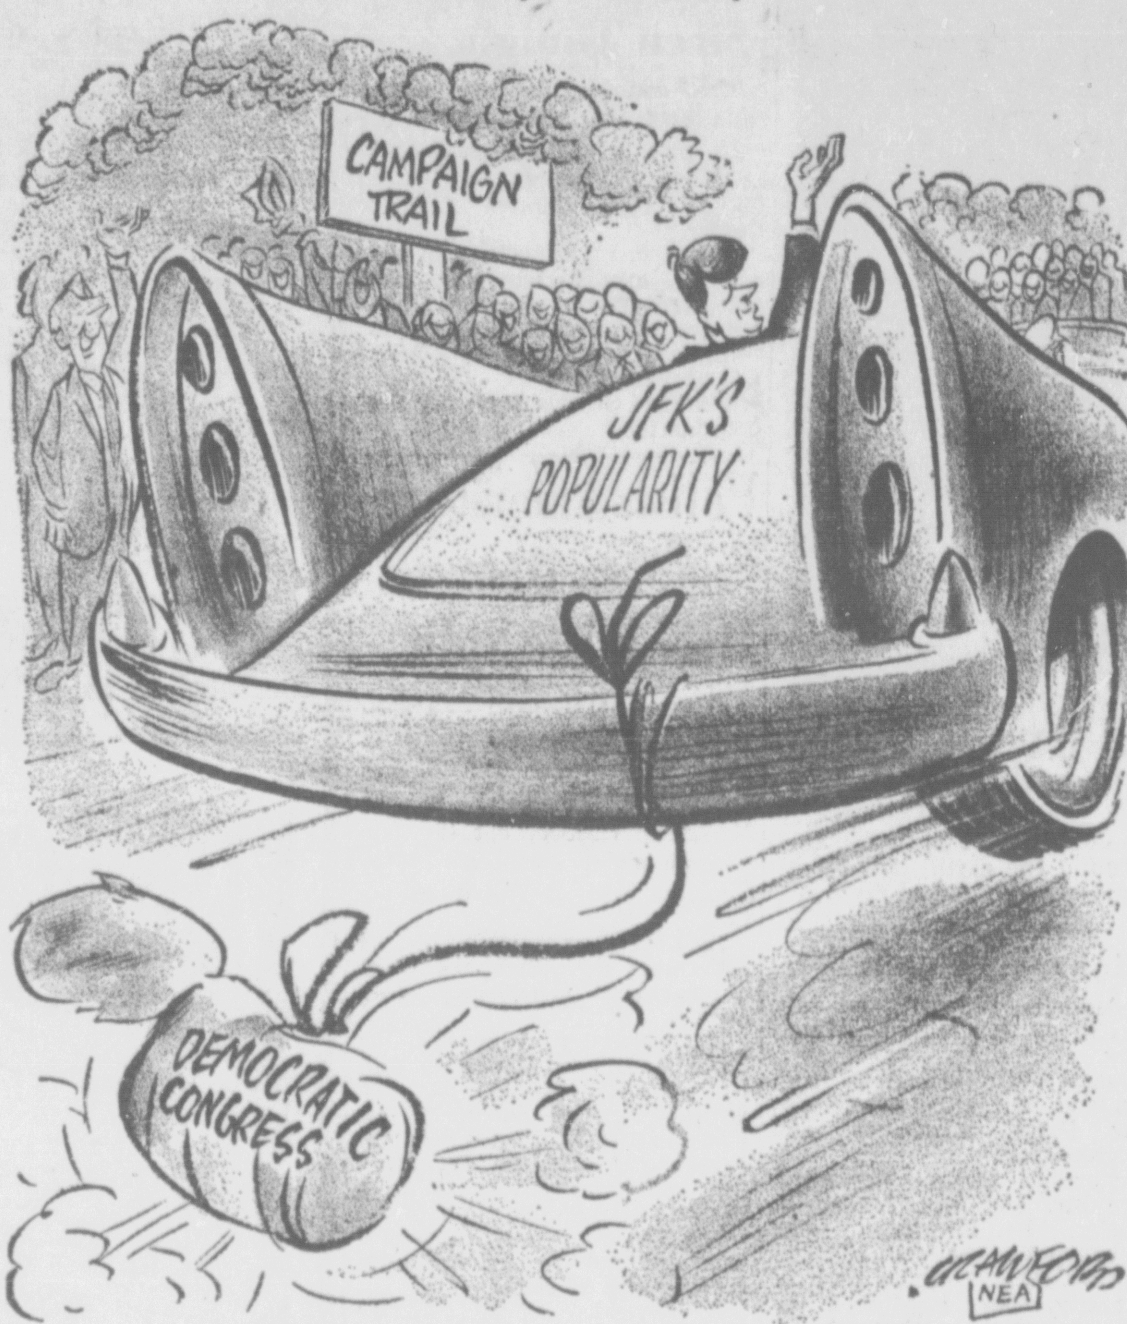

They also urge vaccination in industries where absenteeism presents a serious problem. Since the protection from influenza vaccine lasts only a few months the fact that you had it last year will not protect you this year.

Having had the shots myself I can assure you that the process is simple, the discomfort trivial and the expected benefit great.

LETTER WRITING WEEK

The Post Office Department has selected October 7 to 13 for National Letter Writing week. This is a very good idea and if properly observed will result in a great many neglected children getting some news off to their parents and old friends passing along overdue salutations.

Not Exactly a Honeymoon

Washington News

BY PETER EDSON

Washington Correspondent

Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

WASHINGTON — (NEA) —

Assistant Secretary of State for

Latin-American Affairs Edwin

M. Martin and his staff did their homework for a recent speech which Martin delivered on the Monroe Doctrine. This is his division's particular baby just now, with the Russians and Castro behaving as they are in Cuba.

Martin titled his speech, "The

Adams Family and the Department of State," and he gave it at the Adams family historical site in Quincy, Mass.

As a first impression, you might gather this had nothing to do with the Monroe Doctrine.

But Martin vividly brings back to the fact that it was John

Quincy Adams who was President Monroe's secretary of state

—perhaps the greatest of all

U. S. secretaries of state. And a principal claim to fame for

John Quincy Adams is based on his share of the Monroe Doctrine.

PRESIDENT JAMES MON-

ROE had the courage to proclaim his doctrine in his 1823 message to Congress. But John Quincy

Adams, more than any other person, helped formulate its three great principles, just 140 years ago. They were:

• Noncolonization of America

by European powers.

• Abstention of the United States from European wars except when American rights are invaded or menaced. This provision has long been scrapped and is now little-remembered.

• Hands off the New World.

This has now become the heart of the doctrine. It says in effect that the United States could not view intervention by any outside power on any state of the

New World in any other light than as an unfriendly disposition to this country.

JOHN QUINCY ADAMS, when he became sixth President in 1825, was the first to modify or stretch the Monroe Doctrine.

He announced in his first message to Congress that he would send delegates to a first Pan-

American conference in Panama.

Asked if this might not conflict with the basic American policy of avoiding entangling alliances

he said:

"I do not recollect any change in policy. But there has been a great change in circumstances."

Since that time the Monroe Doctrine has been altered to fit many changed situations.

President James K. Polk invoiced the Monroe Doctrine in 1845 when he asked Congress for authority to end joint occupation of Oregon with the British.

Three years later it was invoked to protest British seizure of territory in Nicaragua.

When Napoleon III set Emperor Maximilian on the throne of Mexico, recognition was denied on the grounds that it was a regime erected on the ruins of an American republican government.

Under President James A.

Garfield the doctrine was used to call the first Pan-American conference in Washington, 1889.

President Grover Cleveland

invoked the doctrine against

Britain when she refused to arbitrate a boundary settlement between British Guiana and Venezuela. This old dispute, by the way, is now before the United Nations General Assem-blly in New York.

The United States abandoned

neutrality to side with Cuba and other Spanish colonies in their war for independence.

PRESIDENT THEODORE

ROOSEVELT in 1904 gave the

Monroe Doctrine a new twist when he told Congress it might be necessary to set up a U. S.

"fiscal protectorate" in this hemisphere. But when Latin America protested, T.R. in the next year said this would never be used as a cloak for territorial aggression.

Woodrow Wilson got explicit recognition for the Monroe Doctrine in the World War I

Treaty of Versailles.

In 1939 the Latin-American foreign ministers warned the European powers not to bring their war to the Americas. Then in 1942 the Inter-American Defense Agreement was signed.

And in 1954 the Caracas Resolution stated that an attempt by any foreign power to impose its ideology on an American state was a menace to all, as much so as military aggression.

As in summing up, Martin

quotes John Adams:

"I always consider the Settlement of America . . . as the opening of a grand scene and

Design in Providence for the illumination of the Ignorant and the Emancipation of the Slavish

Part of Mankind all over the Earth."

So They Say..

This country has more functional illiterates than most other industrially advanced nations—people who do not possess minimum knowledge of the elements of language, mathematics, history and geography.

—Vice Admiral Hyman Rick-

over.

I like to make jungle pictures.

—"Elephant Boy" Sabu, 38, on his return to movies.

But the main point of criticism made by Sen. Stennis was that the State of Mississippi was being denied a hearing by the Supreme Court of the United States. The Constitution specifically provides that the Supreme Court must hear as a matter of

"original jurisdiction" all cases involving a conflict between a state and the Federal government and that the lower courts have no right

starting Tuesday for 11 big days . . .

Congress Split On JFK's Talk

By LARRY OSIUS
WASHINGTON (AP)—Congressional reaction to President Kennedy's address to the nation on the University of Mississippi integration crisis split generally along sectional lines.

Following the president's radio-television address Sunday night urging compliance by Mississippians with federal court orders, seven of the state's eight members of Congress attacked it sharply. Senators from the North and West praised it as being an expression of the public will.

Somewhere in between was Sen. Allan J. Ellender, D-La. Referring to federal court orders demanding admission of Negro James H. Meredith to the all-white University at Oxford, Miss., Ellender said: "I don't like the decision of the court in this case a minute, but since it is the law, I don't see how it can be bypassed."

Sen. James O. Eastland, D-Miss., said succinctly, "I disagree entirely with the President's speech."

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana said, "Thank God that reason, understanding and law seem to have prevailed."

The President's speech drew support from Republicans, too. Sen. Leverett Saltonstall, R-Mass., said, "I thought the President expressed the sentiments of the government and the people of the United States extremely well. I support wholeheartedly what he said."

Sen. Clifford P. Case, R-N.J., said of the speech, "Of course, I agree with it and I hope it will be effective."

Eastland joined Sen. John Stennis and five of Mississippi's six House members in a tatemated denouncing the speech and Kennedy's actions in marshalling federal forces to back up the court orders.

"Just as we have in the past, we shall continue to oppose the invasion of the civil rights of all the people of these United States and the concentration of all power government into some form of a totalitarian state," they declared.

Former President Harry S. Truman, in a Kansas City interview, commented that Kennedy "is on the right track. He's doing exactly what he should do. To straighten it out, he should take whatever steps are necessary."

Trial Term Opens

With a civil calendar of 810 cases, the October trial term of Supreme Court opened today with Justice Lawrence Cooke presiding. There is a trial and grand jury panel in attendance.

Only one part is scheduled for the October term but the December term will have two parts, one presided over by Justice Roscoe V. Elsworth and Part II is scheduled to be held by Judge Hunt.

Local Salesman Has Policy Slips In Car; Fined $100

A 25-year-old Kingston salesman was arrested Sunday by state police on a charge of possessing policy slips, after he permitted troopers to search his car stopped on Route 9W at the Highland traffic circle.

Troopers reported Louis H. Black, of 169 Hasbrouck Avenue, pleaded guilty before Justice of the Peace Philip Schunk, Town of West, and was fined $100. He paid the fine and was released, troopers said.

BCI Investigator Roger Gardner and Troopers John Salter and Leonard Dayka arrested Black. Troopers said the man was stopped for driving at a speed not prudent, and he permitted troopers to search his car. Troopers reported they found a bag containing policy slips in the vehicle.

State police said Black told them he was a self-employed salesman.

Downtown Man

Kingston state police barracks were BCI Sen. Investigator Edward Shannon, Investigators Joseph Ventriglia and Roger Gardner; Troopers Robert Mackey, Vincent Tobia, Richard Ryan, James Conrad and Carl Robke.

Mr. Baines was an unemployed construction worker.

Funeral Is Wednesday

Funeral services will be held at Riverview Baptist Church, 236 Catherine Street, Wednesday, 2 p. m. The Rev. Walter R. Washington, pastor, will officiate. Burial will be Wiltwyck Cemetery. Friends may call at the church Tuesday from 7 to 9 p. m.

Admitted to Hospital

Robert Harvey, 21, 14 O'Neil Street, Kingston, was admitted to Kingston Hospital early Sunday morning for observation following an accident at Port Ewen. Harvey was proceeding north on Route 9W at 4:40 a. m. Sunday when he reported he had "blacked-out." His car struck a brick fence on the Bondryski property and turned over on its top. Deputy Sheriff Daniel Levy and Peter Peterson reported after investigation that the car left the highway on the right hand side, hit the fence and tree and then turned over. Harvey reported he had blacked-out and did not know how the accident happened.

Financial and Commercial

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market edged off in moderate trading today amid scattered signs of resistance to further decline.

Losses of most key stocks were very small, only a few going to a point or so. The "growth" stocks, as usual, were down more.

A large assortment of stocks showed no change.

The steels were mostly firm, some posting small plus signs. A small pickup in steel orders and hopes that this trend will go on in the fourth quarter tended to improve sentiment a bit toward the steel shares.

In addition, the market had just gone through its worst weekly setback since June and could be garnering some technical strength.

Aerospace issues also eased, but with little emphasis. A new rash of defense contracts was announced over the weekend.

On Friday the Associated Press average of 60 stocks rose 1.2 to 214.9.

Hudson Valley Chapter 29 Will Meet Thursday

The Society of Reproduction Engineers, Hudson Valley Chapter 29, will hold its first meeting of the season Thursday at 7:30 p. m., in the lobby of Western Printing and Litho Company, North Road, Poughkeepsie. No formal meeting will take place, but a tour has been arranged.

On the society's last visit to Western, many members said they would like to spend more time in one special place, so arrangements for four different groups have been made.

Group A will be for those who would like a general tour through the plant.

Group B will be for those who would like to spend the time in offset department, camera, stripping, platemaking and press department.

Group C for those who wish to see letterpress and rotary departments.

Group D for those interested in the bindery phase of book-making.

The different groups will gather in the main lobby and proceed from there. The tour will take about two hours.

The second meeting night will be Nov. 7. Plans are now underway for special meeting.

Keating Predicts

lar vote of confidence for the Republican party at the coming election and will "give our great Governor and his fine team, an even more smashing endorsement than they gave in 1958." The voters will re-elect Gov. Rockefeller to office and the great team he quarterbacked will rise with him to this tremendous victory, Jack Javits, Ernie Wharton, and the other fighters on this fighting ticket," Keating said.

Keating Added:

"New York is not a static state. It's a growth state. It has been growing since Governor Rockefeller and his team took over—and if anybody doesn't think so, let's look at the score card. The state's economic growth rate—as reflected by its index of business activity—will this year have an estimated increase of 17% over 1958. This is nearly double the 10 percent growth rate of the previous four-year period. Again, let's translate this into what it means for the individual worker in our state. Total personal income has increased by 6 1/3 billion—up 15 percent over 1958. Per capita income is up $275 for the same period, higher than the U. S. average, and a greater increase than any of our neighbor states."

Two Cars Collide

Cars operated by Johannes Oberlander, 52, of Stonykill Road, Accord, and Richard Drew Southern Railway, 46 1/2, of 24, of Stone Ridge, were in collision about 4:10 p. m., Sunday on Route 209. Deputy Sheriff Emil T. Kuhn and Calvert Harvey investigated and reported the Oberlander car had attempted to turn northeast from the south shoulder of the road into a driveway. Drew attempted to avoid a collision but struck the Oberlander car. Drew was traveling north at the time.

Civil Service Applications Are Being Accepted

The Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, Internal Revenue Service, is accepting applications for Internal Revenue Agents, Internal Auditors, Estate Tax Examiners, Special Agents and Inspectors (Internal Security), grades GS-5 ($4345) and GS-7 ($5355) a year. Training and career opportunities are excellent.

Internal Revenue Agent, Estate Tax Examiner and Special Agent positions are located in district offices at Albany, Brooklyn, Buffalo, Manhattan and Syracuse, while Internal Auditor and Inspector (Internal Security) positions are located at the Regional Inspector's Office, New York City.

Applications, Announcement NY-55-1, NY-55-2 and Recruiting Circular 1 to Announcement 188 or information as to where they may be obtained, can be secured in any post office in New York State (except New York City); New York Region, U. S. Civil Service Commission, News Building, 220 East 42nd St., New York 17, N. Y. and the Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, 1107, 90 Church Street, New York 7, N. Y. Full details are contained in these announcements.

Internal revenue agents conduct field examination of tax returns to determine Federal tax liability. Internal auditors evaluate operating procedures and perform certain audit functions. Applicants for grade GS-5 must have a major in accounting or three years of professional accounting experience. Requirements for grade GS-7 are an additional year of professional accounting experience or graduate study, a superior academic record, or CPA certificate.

Special agents investigate violation of Federal tax statutes. Applicants for grade GS-5 must have three years of commercial accounting and auditing experience. For grade GS-7 one year of criminal investigative experience is required. Education may be substituted for part of the experience provided that it included 12 semester hours in accounting. An LLB degree meets all requirements. Inspectors (Internal Security) conduct investigation of charges against employees of the Internal Revenue Service and others acting in concert with them involving alleged or suspected violations of the Internal Revenue Service Code. Experience requirements are somewhat similar to those for Special Agent GS-7.

Estate tax examiners conduct field investigations of Federal estate and gift tax returns, directed primarily at the determination of the value, ownership of interest and taxability of estates and gifts and pertinent investigations thereto and the preparation of detailed reports interpreting, applying and citing pertinent Federal and State laws, court decisions and opinions. Applicants must have completed six academic years of combined pre-legal and legal study leading to an LLB degree, or have had four years of appropriate legal or quasi-legal experience.

Q) "I own 400 shares of Avco and thought of switching to Kroger. Do you approve of this move, or do you think Avco has a good future in aerospace work?" C. B.

A) I advise you very strongly to hold Avco, unless the increased yield you would get from Kroger is an absolute necessity.

Avco is in a strong phase of growth, doing a great deal of aerospace work, including nose cones for the big missiles. Their research department is working in many other scientific areas including plasma dynamics—a new way of creating electricity. I believe Avco earnings this year will reach at least $1.50 a share, which indicates a reasonable earnings multiple of 16.

Kroger, like the other big food chains, has been under heavy competitive pressures. Earnings were down in 1960 and 1961 and will probably be little better this year. The shares sell at their lowest level since 1957 and have shown no bounce in the summer recovery.

Q) "I'm holding 1,000 shares of Granite City Steel, and I feel that I have too many eggs in one basket. However, I fell in love with the dividends, $1.400 per year on an investment of $9,000. I don't feel this is the time to part with it at the lows. What is your opinion?" H. D.

A) I assume that your investment in Granite City Steel represents an excessive amount of your portfolio. In that event, there is no question at all as to the advisability of switching a substantial percentage of this stock into other issues.

I agree with you that the timing of the switch is important. Granite City is one of the best of the steels. I believe that, unlike some of its competitors, the dividend here is safe and will be continued.

In my opinion, you are justified in waiting for a more favorable market, at which time I would better diversify my holdings.

rioters—audible threat to the safe passage of James H. Meredith, 29-year-old Negro whose court-ordered enrollment at Ole Miss brought on the night's rioting.

Armed marshals, who brought Meredith to the campus late Sunday, placed him in an apartment and guarded him through the night.

Today Meredith awaited the trip to register him as a student—first Negro knowingly admitted to the school in its 114 years.

The dramatic date with registrar Robert Ellis seemed to be on schedule this morning.

A French newsman, Paul Guillard, died amid the fog of tear gas, a bullet in his back. He was reporting for the London Daily Sketch and Agence France Presse.

A jukebox repairman, George Gunter, 23, was shot twice, once through the head and once through the body. He was dead on arrival at a hospital. State police said he was killed on the campus.

Two Marshals Serious

Two marshals and a newsman were among approximately 20 casualties, resulting from bird shot, bullets, rocks and tossed soft drink bottles. The condition of the two marshals was serious.

With the riot eight hours old at a few minutes after 3 a. m., Brig. Gen. Charles Billingslea ordered federal troops on the campus to use any force necessary to put down rioting.

Their bayonets fixed, 200 military policemen trained in riot control stood in front of the administration building where for an hour and a half the rioters had held federal marshals and National Guardsmen trapped.

Glens Falls Man Dies, Was Shot By Wife's Ex

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—Everett Lamotte of Glens Falls, who police said was abducted and shot by his wife's former husband, died Sunday at Albany Medical Center Hospital.

Lamotte, who was 44, and his wife, Alfreda, 36, were awakened early Friday by Isaac Lafay, 54, also of Glens Falls, and forced to drive to a lonely road on the outskirts of Glens Falls.

There, Sheriff Robert N. Lilly said, they argued and Lafay shot Lamotte in the head with a .22-caliber rifle. He then killed himself with a shotgun.

Mrs. Lamotte suffered a leg injury while running through woods to escape. She divorced Lafay two years ago and married Lamotte last year, Lilly said.

Gloom Turns Into Glee Through Granahan Choice

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — When Pennsylvania's Democratic brass tapped three-term U.S. Rep. Kathryn E. Granahan as the one who had to go because of reapportionment, she was "shocked and disappointed."

But today, after her appointment by President Kennedy to be treasurer of the United States, Mrs. Granahan had only thanks and gratitude.

The appointment, announced Friday, goes to the Senate today. "I'm deeply proud of the confidence our President has shown in me and I only hope I'll be able to live up to that confidence," she said Friday after arriving home from the capital.

Mrs. Granahan, prominently mentioned for the $17,000-a-year job for several months, succeeds Mrs. Elizabeth Smith Gatov, who resigned last spring to help California's Gov. Edmund G. Brown campaign for reelection.

She Was Unaware

Aboard a train when the President announced her appointment, Mrs. Granahan was unaware of it until she arrived home.

But she didn't waste any time getting into the swing of things. She said she was dashing for a taxi just before she heard the news and thought she had two $1 bills in her hand.

"When I looked more closely I discovered they were $10 and a $1 bill. Maybe dollar bills should be changed," she said.

Mrs. Granahan is the widow of William T. Granahan, who died in 1956, while in his fifth term as representative from the 2nd Pennsylvania Congressional District.

She was elected to fill his unexpired term, then reelected to two full terms and became a member of the House Government Operations Committee and the Post Office and Civil Service committees.

It was as fifth-ranking Democrat on the latter that she was appointed chairman of a subcommittee investigating the sending of pornography through the mails.

Keeps Accounts

If her appointment is confirmed and she becomes treasurer, Mrs. Granahan's signature will appear on all U.S. currency at the lower left hand side, opposite the signature of Secretary of the Treasury C. Douglas Dillon. However, the change from Mrs. Gatov's signature probably won't be made until press dies bearing her name wear out.

The treasurer of the United States also keeps account of the government's cash income and outgo, and all government checks are drawn against the treasurer's office.

Missiles to Israel

NEW YORK (AP) — Abdel Khalek Hassouna, secretary general of the League of Arab States, says the United States' decision to sell missiles to Israel is "a grave development... endangering the stability of the Middle East."

"It will no doubt adversely affect Arab and American relations..." he added upon arrival Friday by plane to attend the U.N. General Assembly as an observer.

In announcing Tuesday that that short range antiaircraft missiles would be sold to Israel, U.S. officials cited a buildup of similar Soviet arms in neighboring Arab states.

Hassouna declined to comment on the Arab buildup.

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—Now is the time for you to come to the aid of the economy. And the nation's merchants and many of its industrialists are betting that you will, now that the spending season—known on the business calendar as the fourth quarter—is starting. Troublesome as the summer quarter was for many industries (notably steel), its over-all report card was a lot better than many had feared. With that as a fairly solid base, the October-November-December quarter should follow its seasonal pattern and send consumer spending to new highs.

What may happen in 1963 is something else again, but the signs today are for rising retail sales in the next few weeks and increasing production in many industries at least this month and next.

These widely held expectations are based both on seasonal patterns and on the sound base for much of the economy. The latter includes high personal incomes and savings, record employment totals, and a fairly calm public acceptance of (or resignation to) the risks and uncertainties of world and domestic affairs.

Even the stock market breaks of May and June, which alarmed the pulse takers, failed to jolt the public much, beyond making it less inclined to speculate.

The seasonal pattern is sharply marked in retail sales. Many merchants count on the final eight to 12 weeks of the year to make the difference between a so-so year and a quite profitable one by providing up to 40 per cent of the year's total sales volume. The pattern is far from universal, however.

Good retail sales volume in coming weeks will put merchants in position to order again from manufacturers. That's why your spending in the next three months is important to the economy's general trend.

South Heard Italy's Bids

By OSWALD JACOBY

Written for

Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

The last day of the World Championship match was filled with hands that could be called "might have been."

The bidding in the box took place when Italy held the East-West cards. West's opening diamond bid was necessitated by the fact that they use an artificial club. As a result they pushed to a rather unsound game contract.

The hand can be made against any opening, but could also have been set if South had led anything but a club. Unfortunately for America, South listened to the bidding and knew that his partner would be short in clubs. He opened the ace of clubs and continued when North showed out. North ruffed, but had to use up his trump trick.

Eventually declarer discarded his jack of diamonds on dummy's long club and would up making five odd.

At the other table normal American bidding landed East in a comfortable two-spade con-

JFK Stymies Barnett's Long Chance of Winning

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mississippi's Gov. Ross R. Barnett, while doing himself no end of political good at home with his defiance, didn't have to think hard to figure how the federal government could box him in.

And, when he did get boxed, he said what must have been obvious to him from the start: that the power of the federal government was too much for him.

Barnett had only one long chance of winning in his defiance of a U.S. court order that James H. Meredith, 29-year-old Negro and a Korean War veteran, must be enrolled as a student at the University of Mississippi.

JFK Was Not First

The chance—too far-fetched to be considered seriously by anyone who understands American history and government—was that President Kennedy might chicken out and fail to back up the federal court.

Kennedy wasn't the first president to run into defiance from a state or a governor. What they could do, he could do, and he did, which is what practically everybody outside of Mississippi must have expected him to do.

President Jackson got a sharp taste of this defiance before the Civil War when South Carolina, because it disliked a certain tariff act, decided it wouldn't let federal officials collect the duties in that state.

This was the so-called doctrine of nullification—sometimes called interposition—in which a state assumes the right to decide when to, and when not to, obey a law or consider it constitutional.

Avoided Direct Defiance

Then in 1957 Arkansas Gov. Orval F. Faubus tried interposition without directly saying so. In fact, he was pretty oblique about his whole performance.

Although a federal court had ordered Negro children admitted to a Little Rock high school, Faubus called up the Arkansas National Guard.

He avoided direct defiance of the court order by saying he had called out the Guard to keep order. But the effect was the same. The troops kept the children out of school.

Faubus backtracked fast when President Eisenhower sent in federal troops and, to take control of the Guard from Faubus, called the state troops into national service.

With these two examples of interposition—and others—completely rejected and discredited in American life, Barnett nevertheless tried his own brand of interposition.

Further Than Faubus

It must have been plain to him Kennedy could do not less than Eisenhower if he pushed his defiance too hard. He pushed, even further than Faubus.

He directly defied the court order to let Meredith register at Ole Miss by personally blocking him. The court then found Barnett guilty of contempt.

It gave him until Tuesday morning to clear himself—by letting Meredith in—or face a fine of $10,000 a day for every day he blocked the Negro, plus being locked up.

Meantime, although he was slow in doing it, Kennedy sent in marshals, prepared to send in troops, and, like Eisenhower, called the Mississippi National Guard into federal service to take it from under control of the governor.

Thus Barnett got himself caught between the court and the President, a box from which there could be no escape since, if necessary, the troops could be used not only to get Meredith registered but to arrest Barnett for the court.

International Spectacle

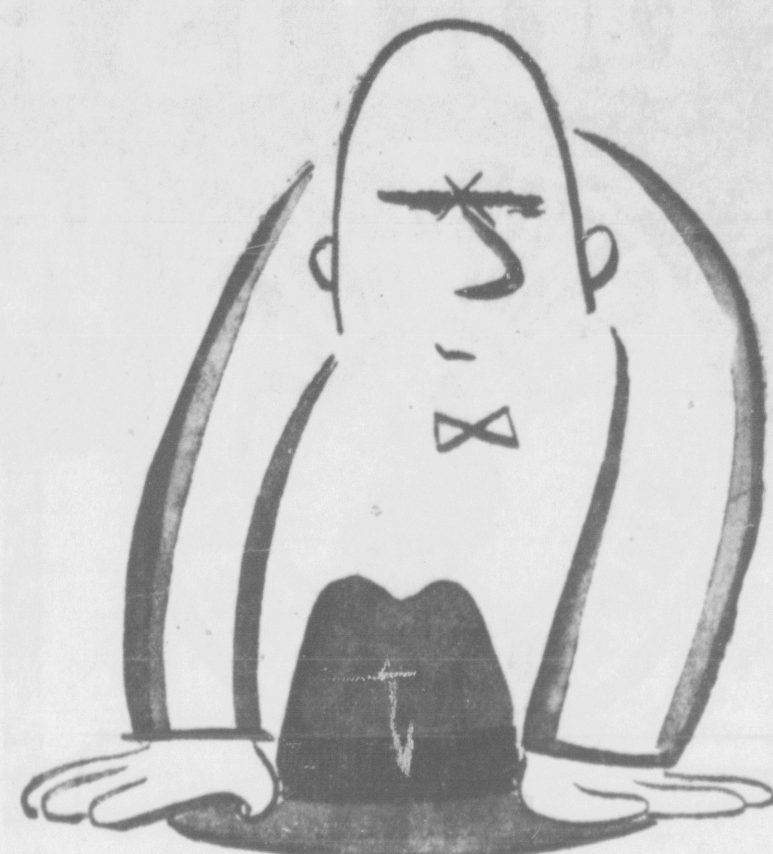

Barnett had to know this was exactly the box he'd get into. He is not a novice in law or history.

Joke Not So Funny

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—Police Officer Wayne Young admitted in court that he put a penny in a parking meter while Marcella McCallum, hired by the police department to check meters, was writing out a ticket for a car at the curb.

Her complaint led to discovery of an ordinance that you can't put money in a meter for another motorist.

The judge dismissed the over-parking charge and told Young to mind his own business.

Only a Few Minutes from Wherever You Live

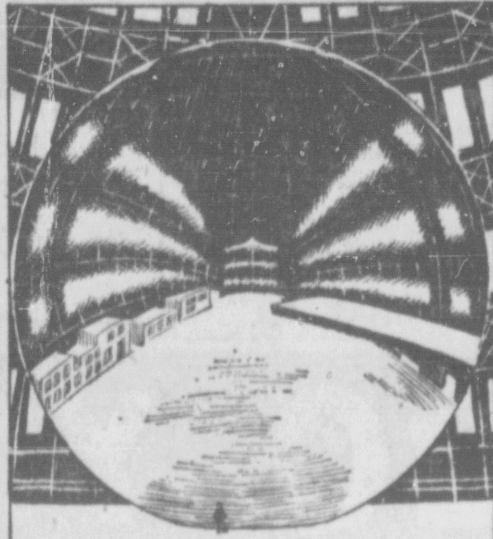

Sputnik Plus Five

The U.S. led off 1960 in space in March when the Pioneer V interplanetary probe set a long-distance radio transmission record of 23 million miles. Even more successful was Tiro 1, launched in April. World's first weather satellite, it relayed thousands of pictures of the earth's cloud patterns.

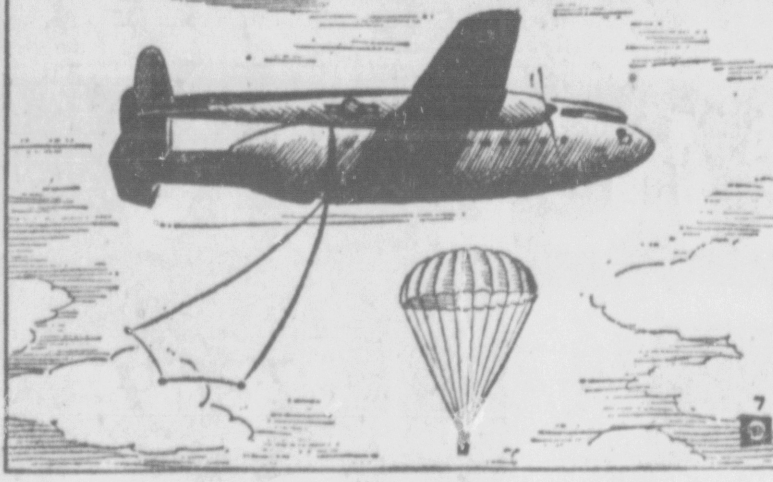

(7) Parade of Satellites

By Don Oakley and Ralph Lane

April also saw the launching of Transit 1-B, the first navigational satellite. In August, Echo I became the largest satellite put into orbit. The 100-foot-diameter reflecting balloon paved the way for a world-wide communications system.

In preparation for manned space flight, Russia announced in May the launching of its first 'spaceship.' A malfunction (first ever admitted by them) sent it into a higher orbit instead of bringing it back to earth. On Aug. 11, the U.S. was first to recover a satellite from space when divers retrieved the 300-pound Discoverer XIII capsule from the Pacific. A week later, Discoverer XIV was snagged in mid-air, a feat which became routine. On Aug. 20, Russia recovered another spaceship containing two dogs and other animals after 17 orbits. Clearly, the coming year would see man go into space.

Resigns From Hercules

The resignation of G. Fred Hogg, from the board of directors of Hercules Powder Company, Wilmington, Del., effective September 30, was announced today by A. E. Forster, chairman of the board and president of Hercules.

The action was taken at the request of Hogg, upon the advice and recommendations of his doctors. He has been a director since December, 1958, the resignation marks the conclusion of 33 years of service with Hercules for Mr. Hogg. Earlier this year, he asked to be relieved of his duties as general manager of the Pine and Paper Chemicals Department, for health reasons.

Arkansas has had five different constitutions. Today's, adopted in 1874, has been amended more than 40 times.

Named to Hague Post

William L. Cahill has been appointed managing director of N. V. Hercules Powder Company, The Hague, Netherlands. It was announced today. Cahill, who has been director of sales of Hercules' International Department since 1959, will assume the position held by Dr. Jan Mensink who has been elected to the Supervisory Board of N. V. Hercules Company, effective December 1.

Glancing Over TV Bill of Fare

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer NEW YORK (AP) — Television did a conscientious job of staying on top of the swift-moving events in and around the university town of Oxford, Miss. All networks broke into regular programs frequently with bulletins.

Five new programs moved into their network positions over the weekend, ranging from a slapstick comedy series to Jack Webb's anthology program.

Gleason Faint Carbon Technically, Jackie Gleason's "American Scene Magazine" is a new show. Unhappily, the evidence on Saturday night's premiere indicates it will be a faithful but faint carbon of the old Gleason show.

All the old familiar ingredients were there—the pretty girls, the dancers and Jackie in an assortment of comedy roles. The new Roy Rogers-Dale Evans variety hour, which premiered at the same hour on ABC Saturday, was much more entertaining. It featured some of the sights at the Seattle World's Fair, some mild comedy and some pleasant singing numbers with both Roy and Dale uncorking surprisingly fine voices. It was a nice, warm family show.

"I'm Dickens...He's Fenster," a new ABC program on Friday, stars two engaging comedians, John Aspin and Marty Ingels, and is uninhibited and ingenious enough to be amusing.

"Mr. Smith Goes to Washington," which moved into ABC's Saturday night schedule, looked like a pretty weak entry. The comedy was almost nonexistent, and although the series is built around a freshman senator from some unidentified agricultural region, the first show was almost entirely about a rich widow with Washington social aspirations.

Jack Webb's first true story in his new CBS series made a hero of a doctor—safe enough this season. Webb's man removed a live Japanese shell from the body of a Marine on the deck of a destroyer. It was based on a real wartime incident, was well produced and promised auspiciously for the rest of the shows to come.

ABC's "Closeup" returned for another season with a stimulating and disturbing report on education in the Soviet Union.

Tonight's Best Bets Recommended tonight: "The Lucy Show," premiere, CBS, 8:30-9 (EDTR)—Lucille Ball and Vivian Vance in a new comedy series; "Stoney Burke," premiere, ABC, 9-10—Jack Lord stars as a contemporary rodeo rider in an action series; "Tonight Show," premiere, NBC 11:15-1 a.m.—Johnny Carson takes over as permanent host.

Gov. Proclaims Education Week, Plugs N.Y. Record

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Gov. Rockefeller put in a plug for his administration's record today as he designated Nov. 11-17 "American Education Week" in New York State.

Rockefeller said in his proclamation that New York was proud of having met its obligations to youth by revising and increasing aid to public schools and by pursuing a "vigorous program" to advance higher education.

In a proclamation Sunday, the governor designated October "Parent-Teacher Membership Month" in the state. He urged parents of school children to join local P-TA units and "play an active role in forwarding its vital work."

More than 67,000 motor vehicles are registered in Alaska.

Technicians Vote Wheatfield Pact

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y. (AP) — About all that remains of a once-heated contract dispute between Bell Aerosystems Co. and technicians at its large Wheatfield plant is the formality of signing a 2½-year contract agreed on by both sides.

The technicians, who failed to report to work Sept. 23 and 24 and then returned on request of the federal government, accepted the contract Sunday by a 190-54 secret-ballot vote in nearby Berg-holtz.

Their union, Local 205 of the American Federation of Technical Engineers (AFL-CIO), had ironed out the contract's terms with the company early last week, with the help of federal mediators.

Signing of the contract was expected in about two weeks. Under its terms, the technicians will get a three per cent general wage increase retroactive to last April 30, and three per cent hikes effective next April 30 and April 30.

$106,000 for Welfare

ALBANY—State Comptroller Arthur Levitt today announced the distribution of $27,702,000, including $106,000 to Ulster County, for the month of October to the 65 Public Welfare Districts in the state. These monies represent the federal and state share (80 per cent) of the anticipated welfare expenditures by the localities. The federal share of these advances amounts to $15,328,000.

Chief U.S. Appeals Judge

Ex-Newsman Has Big Job in Ole Miss Case

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—A transplanted Yankee and ex-newspaperman has the "frustrating" job of chief federal appeals judge in the James Meredith - Mississippi desegregation case.

Judge Elbert Parr Tuttle, a graduate of Cornell University, looks about as cool on the bench, in the midst of one of the South's most emotional desegregation crisis, as he did when a fellow Army officer in World War II remarked:

Rules Out Interviews

"He's the kind of guy who never got ruffled. He could wade through mud and keep clean, be under fire and keep cool."

Like most judges, Tuttle has declined to be interviewed while in the midst of a controversial case.

But, his feeling of frustration has frequently filtered out in comments to the packed courtroom following each legal twist in the Meredith case.

Tuttle was chairman of Georgia's struggling Republican Party before being appointed to the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals by former President Eisenhower.

A ramrod tall man whose bearing shows his military training—he holds the reserve rank of brigadier general—Judge Tuttle was born in Pasadena, Calif., July 17, 1897.

He became interested in journalism at Cornell University where he was editor-in-chief of the Cornell Daily Sun, in addition to holding top posts in student government and the Cornell University Christian Association.

Brief Stint in War

After a brief stint in the Army during the closing days of World War I, Tuttle worked as a reporter and editorial writer for the New York Evening Sun, the Army & Navy Journal and the American Legion Weekly.

Two years later, he decided on a law career and returned to Cornell where he combined law and journalism as editor-in-chief of the Cornell Law Quarterly. He received his LL.B. in 1923.

Even after moving to Atlanta nearly 40 years ago, Tuttle has retained an interest in his alma mater serving as a trustee of Cornell, permanent president of his class and as a former president of the Cornell Alumni Association.

Countdown On Gemini Capsule

It Will Orbit
Two Men in 1964

SPACESHIP IN SECTIONS—A two-man Gemini capsule in mock-up is shown separated into its three major modules, or components, at the St. Louis plant of McDonnell Aircraft. Crew will ride in capsule during the entire flight. The equipment and retrorocket sections will be jettisoned before re-entry into the atmosphere and return to earth. Agena D restartable rocket (its adapter is shown at right) will be orbited separately. One of the purposes of the Gemini program will be to practice rendezvous and docking technique with the Agena orbiting in space.

GEMINI IN ORBIT—Two spacesuit-garbed technicians examine an engineering mock-up of the Gemini space capsule. This is how it will appear when it first goes into orbit. Similar in shape to the Mercury, the two-man Gemini has about 50 per cent more volume and weighs about twice as much. It is being developed for orbital flights up to two weeks in duration and for rendezvous and docking missions with orbiting rockets.

Chipp Withholds Verdict in Death Of Wawarsing Man

Ulster County Coroner Arthur C. Chipp, Kerhonkson, withheld a verdict pending autopsy and laboratory examinations, in the death of Bert Ackerly, 83, Wawarsing, who was found Saturday night hanging on a porch at the home of relatives.

According to Ellenville Troopers John Huntoon and Jerry De Long, Ackerly had been staying at the Chauncey Cook home, Wawarsing. He was last seen alive by Cook at about 5 p. m. Saturday, and at that time he appeared in good health.

At 10 p. m., Cook found Ackerly hanging on an outside porch, suspended on a piece of rope. Coroner Chipp ordered the body removed to Kingston Hospital for an autopsy. State Police laboratory tests and the autopsy report are awaited. Meanwhile, a verdict is being withheld by the coroner.

Suffers Nose Injury

Robert Magyer, of Vassar College, Poughkeepsie, received a laceration of the nose at 3:30 a. m. Sunday, when his 1956 car straddled the double white line on Route 9W at Highland, and struck a road sign post. Highland troopers said Magyer was taken to Vassar Hospital and treated for the nose injury. He was summoned on a charge of failing to keep to the right, authorities said.

Dinner Plans Made

Plans for the fall dinner of the Saugerties Public Health Nursing Committee were made Thursday at the Committee's September meeting at the home of Mrs. Nel Johnson. Eleven members were present. Nursing clinics were also assigned at the meeting. An award was won by Mrs. Julia Pakanen. Refreshments were served.

Two Cars Collide

Cars operated by Mario Marcon, 52, of Grand Street, Marlboro, and James Baldwin, 54, of Lattintown Road, Milton, were involved in a collision at 2:24 p. m. Sunday on Old Post Road, near the Orange-Ulster County line. Troopers at Highland said Marcon was traveling south and Baldwin was driving north on a curve when the vehicles collided head-on. No injuries were reported.

Pays Twice

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—W. E. Roush paid a $10 parking ticket twice and now the problem is in the hands of the City Commission. Roush paid the fine once, lost the receipt, and paid it again. By the time he found the first receipt, the second payment was so far along in the city's bookkeeping system that it requires legal processes to get it back.

POINTING TOWARD ORBIT—Astronauts will recline on their backs in special form-fitting couches when the Gemini sits atop its launching booster. (Hatches would be closed.) In orbit, the capsule will be horizontal with its blunt end facing in the direction of flight. Plans call for 12 capsules to be built and the first to be launched sometime in 1964.

CAN AMERICA KEEPTHE CUP?

Our country has leadership in many fields . . . in science and invention, in business and trade, in cultural and living standards. But can we hold this lead?

Not unless we pay attention to the dilemma of higher education. The cost of leadership has gone up and colleges are in a squeeze. Many face shortages. To give us the leaders our country needs, they need modern classrooms, up-to-date science facilities and, over and above all, a steady supply of competent teachers and professors.

No Rest on This SabbathPentagon Lights Tipoff On Ole Miss Decision

WASHINGTON (AP) — It was the Sabbath, but not a day of rest at the White House. There was no lull before the storm.

The high-voltage hours of Saturday flowed right into Sunday, and the lights in the Army section of the Pentagon blazed past dawn.

The Pentagon's bright windows were just one tipoff that the clash between the state of Mississippi and the federal government over enrolling a Negro into the all-white state university was building toward a climax.

Cool Operation

The President canceled at the last moment a weekend trip to Newport, R. I. and remained in the White House, directing what his aides described as "a cool operation."

Three times Saturday he talked by telephone to Gov. Ross Barnett of Mississippi who had defied court orders and refused to permit Negro James H. Meredith to enroll in the school. Then Kennedy gave orders which kept the Pentagon's lights burning.

Wallkill Driver In Crash, Held On Traffic Count

A 62-year-old Wallkill man was charged with driving a motor vehicle while his license was revoked, after his car left Albany Post Road near the Galeville Bridge, Wallkill, at 9 p. m. Sunday. He was reported uninjured.

Highland state police reported Lloyd George Hartson, of Wallkill, pleaded guilty before Justice of the Peace Seth Lippencott, Town of Shawangunk, and was fined $25 or 25 days in jail.

In lieu of payment of the fine, Hartson was committed to jail until the fine is paid.

Troopers said Hartson was driving his 1956 car north on the highway when the vehicle left the east side of the road, spun around and went in a ditch, where it overturned on its left side.

signs of anger, according to his assistants, the President arranged for absorbing the Mississippi National Guard into federal service and for assembling regular Army troops.

Dressed in a gray suit, white shirt and blue tie, he dined at his regular hour—about 8:30 p. m.

Later he signed the proclamation and executive order formally thrusting the federal government's power into the school crisis, and announced he was going to address the nation on radio and television Sunday night.

It was early Sunday by the time he went upstairs to his living quarters. He turned on the hi-fi and listened to music before going to bed.

Sunday broke bright and rather chilly. By 10 a. m. Kennedy was attending Mass at St. Stephen's church.

Two Kennedy took time out for a thoughtful stroll about the south lawn, the vast spread on the Washington Monument side of the White House grounds.

New reports from Oxford, the campus of the University of Mississippi — flowed into the White House. At least a dozen times the President talked by telephone with his brother, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy.

In shirt sleeves he worked on his speech, sharpening the emphasis and revising to conform with developments.

About an hour before air time, the President abruptly delayed his speech for 2½ hours, until 10 p. m., whipping up speculation that a truce or settlement had been reached.

Then the word came: Meredith was in the school, had been given an apartment but not allowed to register because, said school officials, it was Sunday.

Then he was talking, appealing to the students and Mississippi to accept the situation, obey the law, and to close the books on the case.

The answer came before he finished speaking. The campus erupted into riot and bloodshed, and federal reinforcements were ordered to Oxford.

As the hour hand bit deeply into Monday morning, the President and the attorney general waited in the office receiving reports of a crisis that was far from over.

Two Saugerties Establishments Are Burglarized

Two Saugerties establishments were burglarized during the weekend and $15.65 was taken from the cash register of one and the coin machines were rifled in the other, police authorities reported.

The automobile showroom of James J. Dargan of Ulster Avenue was entered some time Sunday night and early today, and $15.65 taken from the cash register, and six cartoons of cigarettes were reported missing, according to Acting Police Chief Harold Mills.

Chief Mills said the method of entrance is still under investigation. The burglary was discovered when the establishment was opened for business this morning.

The Saugerties plant of Rotron Manufacturing Company, Inc., Simmons Street, Barclay Heights was entered during the weekend and cigarette, candy and soft drink machines were rifled, Kingston state police reported.

The amount of money taken from the machines could not immediately be determined, troopers said.

Trooper Wayne Lawrence said entrance was gained by forcing the front door. A maintenance man discovered the break-in when he opened the plant this morning.

Local Man Gets Spot On Regional Council

W. L. Rider of Kingston was elected to the Regional Council of the National Warm Air Heating and Air Conditioning Association at the association's meeting at the Casey Hotel, Scranton, Pa., Sept. 28. Rider was informed that Kingston was being considered as a possible site for the association's New York State convention to be held some time next spring.

Other officers elected were: George Kotzenberg, Avenel, N. J., regional chairman; Curt Blinsinger, Marlton, Pa., vice chairman; James Cowie, Northport, L. I., New York State chairman.

Plans were completed for the regional convention to be held in Atlantic City, N. J. in February.

COMMUNITY CHEST KICK-OFF—Campaign workers for the Community Chest financial drive will attend the Kick-Off Rally Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the George Washington School.

Rally highlights will include a singing group, the Moralities; Ruth Murray, soloist; Pete Matthews, banjo; orchestra music. The Coach House players also will be on hand. Shown above are Tony Bell, who will be the master of ceremonies, and Bill Murray, the director.

The campaign is scheduled to run from October 2 to October 8. Business and industry and advance gifts divisions are off to a flying start.

Campaign Chairman W. Henry Haltermann says "The Ulster County Community Chest campaign organization is confident that its goal of $170,000 can be achieved. Two factors, however, are vital; the generosity of the community and the diligence of every solicitor. We know that the idea of 11 campaigns wrapped into one appeals to all."

NEW YORK (AP)—Democratic State Chairman William H. McKeon announced today that two closed conferences on Democratic candidates will be held on state issues and President Kennedy's Medicare program.

The meetings will be held Oct. 5 at the DeWitt Clinton Hotel in Albany and Oct. 9 at the National Democratic Club in Manhattan.

McKeon said all members of the Democratic statewide ticket, elected Democratic public officials, party leaders and others will attend. Democratic candidates for Congress and the Legislature also have been invited.

Rusk Rules Out Deal With Soviet On Cuba, Berlin

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk says there's no possibility of a deal to end Soviet intervention in Cuba for Western concessions on Berlin or American bases abroad.

"You cannot support freedom in one place by surrendering freedom in another," Rusk said in reply to a question.

Rusk's comments were made in a prerecorded television interview.

Goldberg to Take High Court Oath

By PAUL M. YOST

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court begins its new term today with President Kennedy due to be on hand for the swearing in of Arthur J. Goldberg as an associate justice.

Goldberg's wife, son and daughter will also be in the marble courtroom when the former secretary of labor pledges to administer justice equally, without respect to persons.

Will Take Two Oaths

Actually he takes two oaths, both administered by Chief Justice Earl Warren, before he takes his seat on the great mahogany bench. The other oath is given in the privacy of the chambers with only the justices present.

Goldberg succeeds Felix Frankfurter, who resigned this summer because of ill health.

He is Kennedy's second appointment to the Supreme Court. His first, Byron R. White, was sworn in April 16.

This session, with a particularly heavy docket and expected to produce some momentous decisions, likely will tell whether their judicial views are liberal, conservative or somewhere in between.

At 54, Goldberg, son of Jewish immigrants, will be the third youngest member of the court.

Demos Sign 6,407 More for Pa. Vote

HARRISBURG (AP) — Official registration returns from 22 of Pennsylvania's 67 counties showed today that the Democrats have signed up 6,407 more new voters than the Republicans so far for the Nov. 6 election.

The returns, made public by Commonwealth Secretary E. James Trimarchi Jr., also give the Democrats a 75,631 edge in the over all number of registered voters in the counties.

Only seven of the counties—Bradford, Forest, Huntingdon, Pike, Potter, Snyder and Wyoming—produced a larger number of new Republican voters than Democrat.

The largest increase came in Westmoreland County where 5,100 new Democratic voters were registered along with 1,605 new Republican voters.

Justice Potter Stewart at 47 and Justice White at 45 are the youngest.

Momentous Decisions

Goldberg joins the high tribunal when its dockets are crammed with more than 1,000 cases some are certain to produce momentous decisions.

The court, for instance, will decide on:

The constitutionality of Bible reading and the saying of the Lord's Prayer in public schools.

The final outcome of sit-in racial demonstrations in the South.

Fixing of new standards for reapportionment of legislative districts in the states.

Ulster Garden Club

Instead of the regular September meeting for the Ulster Garden Club, a group of members drove to visit "Boscobel" at Garrison, N. Y. Historic restoration in the elegant 18th Century architectural style of Robert Adam, it is one of the most beautiful homes built in America.

Built by States Morris Dyckman for his wife, Elizabeth, and furnished in the Adam manner with silver, glass and china which he collected in England. Abandoned, the mansion was threatened with destruction but private funds were found to preserve this architectural treasure.

"Boscobel" had to be moved board by board to a new site. It now stands above the Hudson, surrounded by its gardens and a beautiful view of the river looking toward West Point.

The regular October meeting of the Club will be held at the home of Mrs. Henry Parker in Stone Ridge.

Members are requested to notify the secretary if unable to attend.

Say 'Splat, Splat'

New Frontiersman Luther Hodges may soon find himself adorned with a muzzle as tight as the ones that have been applied to anti-Communist military men.

The Secretary of Commerce surprisingly is concerned about the waste of--of all things--paper towels and he abandoned New Frontier thinking to put into a recent address the following plug:

"If everyone washing his or her hands and using paper towels for drying would shake his hands and say 'splat, splat' before using a group of towels, I'll bet the cost of towels could be cut in half. Try it. You'll find it takes one towel instead of several."

Doesn't the secretary know that waste creates prosperity? Hasn't he heard that scattering money creates jobs and increases tax revenue sufficiently to pay the cost? Splat-splating would reduce the demand for the paper towels and play hob with employment in the forests and paper mills.

An American soldier, on leave "Somewhere in England" headed for a recreation center and lost little time in rushing the girls. He danced with several, took time out for a few cups of coffee and cakes, then spied an elegant girl. Without so much as a by-your-leave he twirled her onto the dance floor. When she was able to catch her breath she berated him in no uncertain terms and demanded:

Girl--Do you know who I am? Soldier--Ah, a quiz contest, too, eh? Well, who are you? Girl--My father is a knight. Soldier--You don't say. And pray sweet maiden, what is a knight? Girl--The King of England tapped my father on the shoulder with a sword and made him a knight.

Soldier--Yeah, those accidents can be tough. A guy back home konked my old man with a brick and now he thinks he's Napoleon.

Boastful Young Man--Yes, my family can trace its ancestry back to William the Conqueror. Friend--I suppose you'll be telling us that your ancestors were in the Ark with Noah? Boastful Young Man--Certainly not. My people had a boat of their own.

Onteora Central Nips Rondout Valley, 7-6, in UCAL Clash

Winners Score TD, Point in 2nd Quarter

Moving 70 yards in a second period drive, the Onteora Indians crashed the victory column Saturday as they nipped Rondout Valley, 7-6, in a hard fought UCAL contest at Dietz Stadium.

Halfback Eric Stoutenburg was the hero for the boys from Boiceville. He ran two yards to climax the drive after he and halfback John Phelan had taken turns moving the pigskin downfield. Phelan then plunged for the vital extra point.

The Ganders came to life in the fourth quarter. After they had a touchdown called back because of a penalty. They moved 80 yards with quarterback Bob Barnum sneaking over from the one. However, the extra point attempt was halted by the alert Onteora defense.

Both sides missed earlier scoring opportunities. The Indians moved to the goal line early in the contest but a clipping penalty nullified the drive.

Coach Bob Ryan of the winners cited the line in particular for its good game against the Stone Ridge gridders.

Onteora will play at Wallkill on Saturday while the Ganders will be home against Marlboro. Both are UCAL engagements.

Middletown Raps Pioneers, 34-0
 Dominating the contest from beginning to end, Middletown's defending DUSO champions swept past Poughkeepsie, 35-0, Saturday at the Bridge City. The Middies showed an awesome display of power, rolling up 287 yards on the turf and passing for 62 more.

Dick Collins, the flashy halfback, scored three touchdowns for the Middies while Gus Myers, Nick Barber and Vince Monaco gave the Middies a solid running attack.

Collins started the scoring with a 53 yard run early in the game and the visitors were never threatened. Tricky Dick went in on a 15 yard gallop and he climaxed his day with a plunge up the middle from close range.

Myers added the other two touchdowns, one on a 10 yard run and the other on a five yarder. Center Larry McDowell kicked a pair of extra points and the final score came when the Middle forward wall blocked a punt in the end zone.

Liberty Roms To 34-0 Win
 The four-year string of UCAL pennants compiled by New Paltz may be at an end. Liberty Central, a strong runnerup in the circuit last season, scored four times in the first half and then added a marker in the third period to walk in the Huguonots, 43-0, Saturday at the New Paltz field.

Halfback Bill Garren of the visitors won 32 yards on the second play of the game to set the pattern very early. From then on it was a one-sided affair as the Redskins took advantage of every opportunity to submerge the Huguonots.

Reserve quarterback Dave Elliott completed a TD heave to halfback Bill Earle late in the first quarter. Don Sakian passed to end Ron Pelsang in the second period and then fullback Clayton Yarn went in from the six.

Garren closed the scoring for the day when he moved in from the six.

The visitors had a big edge in the statistics, getting 12 first downs to seven and gaining 276 yards on the turf against 127 for the Huguonots. Liberty picked up 90 yards in the air while the home side netted but 30.

Koufax, Pierce to Hurl Today

NL Playoff To Commence In SF Park

By MIKE RATHET
 Associated Press Sports Writer
 "I knew it was gone," said smiling Willie Mays.
 "Damn it, damn it," said dejected Johnny Podres.

That just about summed up the feelings of the players Sunday at the two focal points of major league baseball—in San Francisco where the Giants won, and in Los Angeles, where the Dodgers lost and brought about the fourth pennant playoff in National League annals.

Mays, who hadn't had a hit in his last 10 trips to the plate, led off in the eighth with Houston and San Francisco locked in a 1-1 tie, and tagged a one-strike pitch over the left field fence for his 47th homer and a 2-1 Giants victory.

Podres, who had a two-hit shut-out with one out in the eighth, served up a pitch to Gene Oliver, and the St. Louis catcher hit it into the lower left field stands for a homer that carried the Cardinals to a 1-0 triumph over the Dodgers.

The combination of the Giants' fifth victory in the last seven games and the Dodgers' fourth consecutive defeat and sixth in games since they built a four-game lead only last Monday left the two clubs in a tie for the title.

A three-game playoff begins today at 3 p.m. EST in San Francisco, where Billy Pierce (15-6) will likely start against the Dodgers' Sandy Koufax (14-6).

The second game, matching the Giants' Jack Sanford against Stan Williams, and the third game, if necessary, will be played in Los Angeles.

The World Series with the American League champion New York Yankees furnishing the opposition, starts Thursday.

In the other closing National League games Sunday, John Tsitouris' five-hitter led Cincinnati to a 4-0 victory over Philadelphia.

Pittsburgh edged Milwaukee, 4-3, on Dick Groat's decisive double and the Chicago Cubs pulled off a triple play in a 5-1 decision over the New York Mets.

In the American League, the Chicago White Sox belted the champion New York Yankees, 8-4. Minnesota blanked Baltimore, 1-0, behind Camilo Pascual's three-hitter. Detroit whipped Kansas City, 6-1. Cleveland defeated the Los Angeles Angels twice, 4-3 and 6-1, and Washington and Boston split, each taking a 3-1 decision.

A Big Homer
 "I hit it good," said Mays, of the shot that won it for the Giants. "I don't know if that was my biggest homer ever—or not."

Podres was sure.

"This was the best game I had pitched in my life. Just one blankety blank pitch and I get beat."

Mays' homer came off Houston starter Dick Farrell (10-20), who had been touched for Ed Bailey's 17th homer in the fourth inning that sent the Giants out to a 1-0 lead. The Colts tied it in the sixth against Billy Odell on singles by Roman Mejias, Bob Aspromonte and Jim Pendleton.

Odell left for a pinch hitter in the seventh and St. Miller (5-8) received credit for the victory.

The story at Los Angeles was much the same with Cards' starter Curt Simmons and Podres matching serves. Simmons (10-10) allowed only five hits, hurling the second straight St. Louis shutout against the Dodgers and extending their scoreless innings string to 21 while keeping them from getting a runner beyond second base.

Podres (15-13) had given up only two hits and hadn't permitted a runner past first base when Oliver connected for the clincher.

In the clubhouse, the managers of the playoff participants pulled their respective thoughts together and made these comments:

Al Dark of San Francisco: "I've never seen a club come back like this one—a club that was counted out so much. But this thing isn't over yet."

Walt Alton of Los Angeles: "Well, we can't back into it now. This time we've got to win it ourselves."

That's been the Dodger story in all three previous playoffs. The Dodgers lost to St. Louis in 1946, lost to the Giants in 1951 and defeated Milwaukee in 1959, going on to capture the world series.

Meanwhile, the league's lesser lights pulled down the curtain.

The Reds backed the pitching of Tsitouris with home runs by Jerry Lynch and Gordie Coleman to beat the Phillies.

The Pirates rode Groat's eighth inning bases-loaded double to their victory over the Braves and the Cubs turned back the Mets with the aid of the key eighth inning triple play.

Newburgh Beats Yonkers, 38-0
 Jimmy Hill scored three touchdowns and his Newburgh Free Academy mates opened up their grid season with a 38-0 win over visiting Yonkers Central Saturday.

Hill, an All-DUSO selection last season, tallied on runs of 70, 4 and 55 yards. Charles Tudor hit paydirt twice with 20 and 15 yard scampers and John Rizzuto ran 18 yards for the final tally.

The line score:
 Newburgh 18 14 0 6—38
 Yonkers 0 0 0 0—0

Shades of '51

Giants, LA Playoff Brings Back Memories

By JOE REICHLER
 Associated Press Sports Writer
 SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The players are different and the home cities of the two clubs have changed but it was 1951 all over again for the Giants and Dodgers as these two arch rivals engaged in the opener of another post-season playoff for the National League pennant.

Just as it was 11 years ago, it was the Giants who overhauled the Dodgers. The Giants, managed by Alvin Dark, the '51 team captain, didn't have to make up as much ground this time, but in some ways, the Dodger collapse was even greater.

The 1951 Dodgers dissipated a 13½-game lead of mid-August but it was due to a tremendous Giants' surge rather than a Dodger foldout. This time the Dodgers, as even their manager admitted, had no one to blame but themselves.

Lead Dwindles
 They had held the lead since July 7 and at one time, on Aug. 9, were 5½ games in front of the Giants. Only a week ago the Dodgers led the Giants by four games with but seven to play. They lost six of those seven. The Giants won five of their seven to make up the four-game difference.

The double crusher came Sunday when the Giants nipped Houston 2-1 on an eighth-inning home run by Willie Mays and St. Louis blanked the Dodgers 1-0 on an eighth-inning home run by catcher Gene Oliver.

Johnny Podres pitched brilliantly, permitting only five hits, but lost the hurling duel to Curt Simmons.

Dodger Manager Walter Alston, trying desperately to hide his disappointment, refused to blame the Dodger collapse on himself.

Alston named Sandy Koufax, the southpaw strikeout sensation to pitch today's opener against the Giants, after having been informed that the Giants planned to start Billy Pierce, the veteran left-hander.

Koufax had won 14 of 20 decisions, all his victories coming in the first half of the season. He recently returned to the starting rotation after being sidelined since July 17 with a circulatory disorder in the forefinger of his pitching hand.

The Giants and Dodgers fought evenly during the regular season, each winning nine games. The Giants, however, won six of the last seven from the Dodgers.

Charter Shoots 1782 In Pin Eliminations

Big Jake Charter, the Poughkeepsie laughing boy, took a big leap after the first round of the Hudson Valley Bowling Proprietors Tournament with a blistering 1782 for the first eight games.

Rolling yesterday on Lanes 1-16 at the Bowlerama, Jake unleashed games of 215, 178, 220, 233, 194, 267, 258, and 217 for his total. The 1782 comes to an average of a little more than 221.

Phil Versace, another Poughkeepsie veteran, is in second place with a 1687 total. He did his rolling at Mardi-Bob in the Bridge City.

A total of 93 bowlers are taking part in the eliminations, which will continue for two more weeks. Then the high 12 will compete in head-to-head matches with the winner being decided by the Petersen Point system.

Bowling yesterday took place at three different establishments and the bowlers will change places the next two weeks, rolling once in each house.

Following Charter and Versace, all with averages better than 200 are Nels Linelli, Newburgh, 1646; Jim Toupoune, Beacon, 1637; John Martini, Newburgh, 1611 and Tom Carlino, Kingston, 1609.

Others in the top 26 are Jim Lavery, Poughkeepsie, 1598; Joe Mazzacane, Newburgh, 1598; Al J. Crisci, Newburgh, 1596; Ed Gordon, Newburgh, 1595; Joe Cervone, Newburgh, 1593; John Ellis, Middletown, 1582; Kildy Corrado, Kingston, 1574; Jim Lawson, Newburgh, 1574; George Baird, Poughkeepsie, 1570; Jack Ferraro, Kingston, 1567; Art Scott, Middletown, 1559; Chris Gallo, Kingston, 1558; John Ferraro, Kingston, 1557; Gerald Wich, Walden, 1556; Jim Torelli, Middletown, 1554; Tony Mack, Newburgh, 1542; Gordie Bulton, Middletown, 1552; Len Sicker Jr., Kingston, 1531; Sal Troup, Warwick, 1531 and Frank Bandiero, Walden, 1531.

Indians Seeking Another Manager

CLEVELAND (AP) — General Manager Gabe Paul was looking for a new field boss for the Cleveland Indians today and said he had "a couple of choices in mind."

"I want the best available," Paul said Sunday after announcing that the contract of freshman manager Mel McGaha, 36, would not be renewed for 1963.

Paul has approached Leo Durocher, former manager of the Dodgers and Giants in the National League, about the Cleveland job. Durocher, now a coach for the Dodgers, must decide whether he prefers Los Angeles or another crack at managing.

The only reason Paul gave for McGaha's dismissal was, "I just felt a change was in order."

The Indians finished sixth in the American League under McGaha after holding first place through a good portion of April, May and June. They dropped out of the top spot on July 8 and gradually slipped downward.

Beacon Defeats Highland, 7-0
 Fullback Murray Milligan tallied from 21 yards out in the first period and then Beacon High used a strong defense to beat Highland, 7-0, in a DCSL tilt Saturday at the Southern Dutchess County gridiron.

The touchdown was set up when Beacon recovered a fumble deep in Highland territory. After Milligan's jaunt, quarterback Mike Devine bucked over for the PAT.

Highland reached the one in the third period but the home side rose to the occasion and stopped the winless visitors, who have dropped two straight circuit decisions.

Don Stumpf was the winner of the 100 lap championship race at Victory Speedway in Middletown. He nipped Bob Malzahn and Frankie Schneider. The race was halted nine times because of mishaps.

In the Flathead race of 20 laps, Jay Zanetti was the winner with Billy Tanzosh and Ralph Napolitano second and third.

Kisia Alenja Leads Hawks At Danbury

Kisia Alenja, a foreign exchange student from Kenyon, Africa, scored two goals to pace the New Paltz State Teachers College Hawks to a 3-1 victory at Danbury in the opening soccer game of the season Saturday.

Alenja broke the deadlock at the 16 minute mark of the first period with a goal from close range. New Paltz had dominated the action until the goal and the Hawks finished the period with 12 shots at the Danbury goalie while Tom Clarke of the visitors was asked to make only three saves.

After a scoreless second period, the home side knotted the count with a goal early in the third stanza. Then Al Miller's boys took the lead midway in the fourth quarter when Richie Lotze, the Elmont, L. I. flash, dribbled the length of the field and put one into the net.

Two minutes later Alenja clinched the victory with his second goal of the afternoon.

Clarke, a Junior College All-American while at Orange County Community College, had 12 saves while the New Paltz boys peppered the Danbury goalie with 48 shots, in addition to the three which went by him.

The Hawks were aided by 200 students from the campus, who made the trip to Danbury. They didn't come home disappointed.

Coach Miller's squad will host Oneonta State on Saturday at 2 p. m.

Redskins Still Pace NFL Eastern Circuit

By JACK CLARY

Associated Press Sports Writer

The Green Bay Packers and Detroit Lions will find out who's boss of the National Football League's Western Conference in a hurry, but who (and don't laugh) is going to figure out how to stop the Washington Redskins?

The Redskins lead the Eastern Conference today after their second straight upset victory, a 24-14 pasting of St. Louis Sunday, for a 2-0-1 record that includes a tie against Dallas. Los Angeles' winless Rams (0-3) got the next chance, but the Redskins must be favored (no snickers, please) after victories over the likes of the Cleveland Browns and Cards.

The Packers and Lions, both with 3-0 marks, play in Green Bay Wis. next week. The defending champion Packers disposed of the Chicago Bears' first place dreams in a 49-0 lacing Sunday, while Detroit did the same to Baltimore with a 29-20 victory. Both losers are now 2-1.

In other games, the New York Giants moved into second place in the Eastern Conference with a 31-27 victory over Pittsburgh (1-2); Cleveland (1-2) was upset for the second straight week, this time by Philadelphia's Eagles, 35-7; the Rams lost to Dallas, 27-17, and San Francisco won its first, 21-7 over Minnesota.

Yanks Want to Play Best Club In the Series

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—"We want to play the best club, and I guess we'll find out, pretty soon which club that is."

That was the reaction of Ralph Houli, manager of the New York Yankees, to the news that the Los Angeles Dodgers and San Francisco Giants would have a best-of-three playoff starting today to determine his club's World Series opponent.

"No, I don't think it will be a break for us," said Houli. "I can't see where the playoff could hurt the National League unless the winner has to overpitch his bullpen."

"The team that wins will come into the series loose. The winner will feel 'Well, we're in it and we're just happy to be here.' They should be in a terrific frame of mind."

The Yanks skipper said he would not announce his pitching plans or batting order until the day before the series. However, it was an open secret that Whitey Ford, who has not allowed a run in 32 consecutive innings for a series record, would open, followed by Ralph Terry and Bill Stafford.

Don Fullmer in Garden Fight

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The heavyweight division goes into the corner and the lighter boxers take over this week with welterweight champion Emile Griffith meeting Don Fullmer of West Jordan, Utah, Saturday night in one of the most interesting pairings at New York's Madison Square Garden.

Griffith, 24, is thinking of going into a heavier class. He has agreed to box Teddy Wright of Detroit in Vienna, Oct. 17 for the recently activated junior middleweight (154 pounds) crown.

The non-title 10-round match with Fullmer, younger brother of Gene Fullmer, the National Boxing Association's middleweight champ, will give Griffith a chance to test his power against a 160-pounder.

Griffith has a 31-3 career record with 11 knockouts.

Fullmer, 23, has a 27-6 record, winning two of three this year.

The bout will be carried on network (ABC) television.

Battling Torres of Los Angeles will box Don Jordan, the former welter king, in Los Angeles Friday night.

Dallas Texans Still Unbeaten in AFL Play

They say bad things come in threes. But not for the Dallas Texans in the American Football League this year. It's three good things for them.

First, Coach Hank Stram has come up with the quarterback he's been looking for the past two seasons in Len Dawson. Also, to go with the former Purdue ace's pinpoint passing Dallas continues to get the running from Abner Haynes.

And third, Stram's once-questionable defense now is rated as the league's best.

Put 'em all together, and they spell first place in the Western Division with a 3-0 mark after Sunday's 41-21 blasting of the Buffalo Bills, who are winless in four games.

Denver (3-1) continued its surge in the West with a solid 32-10 victory over New York (2-2) while rookie John Hadl led San Diego (2-2) to a 42-33 victory over Oakland (0-3). Houston and Boston were not scheduled.

Dawson passed for three touchdowns against the Bills, giving the league's No. 1 quarterback eight so far in his first AFL season. He ran his passing yardage to 678 yards, picking Buffalo's defense for 258, and then added 59 more on the ground.

Gene Mingo, the league's leading scorer, kicked four field goals and two extra points for Denver against the Titans. Bronco quarterback Frank Tripucka threw one touchdown pass and scored his first TD in a 3-year AFL career.

New York lost quarterback Lee Grosscup with a knee injury on the game's third play, and their offense sputtered thereafter.

Hadl, who's supposed to make San Diego fans forget about the now-departed Jack Kemp, the quarterback who paced the Chargers to two divisional titles, threw three TD passes. He had help on the ground from Keith Lincoln, who set up one TD with a 45-yard run, and scored one with an 86-yard run.

DINUBA, Calif.—Wayne Thornton, 172, Fresno, knocked out Pete Gonzales, 172, Los Angeles, 4.

Runnels Wins Hitting Crown

NEW YORK (AP)—Pete Runnels of the Boston Red Sox captured his second American League batting championship Sunday as Mickey Vernon's belated bid for his second title fell five points short.

Runnels, veteran first baseman, hit out both ends of the doubleheader against Washington because of the flu and finished with a .325 average. Mantle collected two hits in three tries in his final game and wound up at .321. The New York Yankees' star outfielder barely qualified for title consideration, finishing with the minimum 502 total appearances.

Runnels won his first batting crown in 1960 with a .320 mark. Mantle took it in 1956 with a .353 average.

In the National League, Tommy Davis of the Los Angeles Dodgers holds a five-point lead over Cincinnati's Frank Robinson. The Reds outfielder collected two safeties in three at bats in his final game Sunday and lifted his average to .342.

Davis is batting .347. However, his performance in the best-of-three playoff against San Francisco will count in the regular season records.

Harmon Killebrew of the Minnesota Twins won the American League home run and runs batted in titles. He slammed 48 homers and drove in 126 runs.

Willie Mays of San Francisco clinched his second National League home run crown by smashing his 47th Hank Aaron of Milwaukee finished second with 45.

Winners Score TD, Point in 2nd Quarter

Moving 70 yards in a second period drive, the Onteora Indians crashed the victory column Saturday as they nipped Rondout Valley, 7-6, in a hard fought UCAL contest at Dietz Stadium.

Halfback Eric Stoutenburg was the hero for the boys from Boiceville. He ran two yards to climax the drive after he and halfback John Phelan had taken turns moving the pigskin downfield. Phelan then plunged for the vital extra point.

The Ganders came to life in the fourth quarter. After they had a touchdown called back because of a penalty, they moved 80 yards with quarterback Bob Barnum sneaking over from the line. However, the extra point attempt was halted by the alert Onteora defense.

Both sides missed earlier scoring opportunities. The Indians moved to the goal line early in the contest but a clipping penalty nullified the drive.

Coach Bob Ryan of the winners cited the line in particular for its good game against the Stone Ridge gridders.

Onteora will play at Wallkill on Saturday while the Ganders will be home against Marlboro. Both are UCAL engagements.

Middletown Raps Pioneers, 34-0

Dominating the contest from beginning to end, Middletown's defending DUSO champions swept past Poughkeepsie, 35-0, Saturday at the Bridge City. The Middies showed an awesome display of power, rolling up 287 yards on the turf and passing for 62 more.

Dick Collins, the flashy halfback, scored three touchdowns for the Middies while Gus Myers, Nick Barber and Vince Monaco gave the Middies a solid running attack.

Collins started the scoring with a 53 yard run early in the game and the visitors were never threatened. Tricky Dick went in on a 15 yard gallop and he climaxed his day with a plunge up the middle from close range. Myers added the other two touchdowns, one on a 10 yard run and the other on a five yarder. Center Larry McDowell kicked a pair of extra points and the final score came when the Middies forward wall blocked a punt in the end zone.

Liberty Roms To 34-0 Win

The four-year string of UCAL pennants compiled by New Paltz may be at an end. Liberty Central, a strong runnerup in the circuit last season, scored four times in the first half and then added a marker in the third period to wallop the Huguenots, 43-0, Saturday at the New Paltz field.

Halfback Bill Garren of the visitors went 32 yards on the second play of the game to set the pattern very early. From then on it was a one-sided affair as the Redskins took advantage of every opportunity to submerge the Huguenots.

Reserve quarterback Dave Elliott completed a TD heave to halfback Bill Earle late in the first quarter. Don Sakian passed to end Ron Pelsang in the second period and then fullback Clayton Yau went in from the six.

Garren closed the scoring for the day when he moved in from the six.

The visitors had a big edge in the statistics, getting 127 first downs to seven and gaining 276 yards on the turf against 127 for the Huguenots. Liberty picked up 90 yards in the air while the home side netted but 30.

NL Playoff To Commence In SF Park

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer
"I knew it was gone," said smiling Willie Mays.

"Damn it, damn it," said dejected Johnny Podres.

That just about summed up the feelings of the players Sunday at the two focal points of major league baseball—in San Francisco where the Giants won, and in Los Angeles, where the Dodgers lost and brought about the fourth pennant playoff in National League annals.

Mays, who hadn't had a hit in his last 10 trips to the plate, led off in the eighth with Houston and San Francisco locked in a 1-1 tie, and tagged a one-strike pitch over the left field fence for his 47th homer and a 2-1 Giants victory.

Podres, who had a two-hit shutout with one out in the eighth, served up a pitch to Gene Oliver, and the St. Louis catcher hit it into the lower left field stands for a homer that carried the Cardinals to a 1-0 triumph over the Dodgers.

The 4th Straight Loss

Combination of the Giants' fifth victory in the last seven games and the Dodgers' fourth consecutive defeat and sixth in games since they built a four-game lead only last Monday left the two clubs in a tie for the title.

A three-game playoff begins today at 3 p.m. EST in San Francisco, where Billy Pierce (15-6) will likely start against the Dodgers' Sandy Koufax (14-6). The second game, matching the Giants' Jack Sanford against Stan Williams, and the third game, if necessary, will be played in Los Angeles.

The World Series, with the American League champion New York Yankees furnishing the opposition, starts Thursday.

In the other closing National League games Sunday, John Tsitouris' five-hitter led Cincinnati to a 4-0 victory over Philadelphia, Pittsburgh edged Milwaukee, 4-3, on Dick Groat's decisive double and the Chicago Cubs pulled off a triple play in a 5-1 decision over the New York Mets.

In the American League, the Chicago White Sox belted the champion New York Yankees, 8-4. Minnesota blanked Baltimore, 1-0, behind Camilo Pascual's three-hitter. Detroit whipped Kansas City, 6-1. Cleveland defeated the Los Angeles Angels twice, 4-3 and 6-1, and Washington and Boston split, each taking a 3-1 decision.

A Big Homer

"I hit it good," said Mays, of the shot that won it for the Giants. "I don't know if that was my biggest homer ever—or not." Podres was sure.

"This was the best game I had pitched in my life. Just one blankety blank pitch and I get beat." Mays' homer came off Houston starter Dick Farrell (10-20), who had been touched for Ed Bailey's 17th homer in the fourth inning that sent the Giants out to a 1-0 lead. The Colts tied it in the sixth against Billy Odell on singles by Roman Melillo, Bob Aspromonte and Jim Peadar.

O'Dell left for a pinch hitter in the seventh and Stu Miller (5-8) received credit for the victory.

The story at Los Angeles was much the same with Cards' starter Curt Simmons and Podres matching serves. Simmons (10-10) allowed only five hits, hurling the second straight St. Louis shutout against the Dodgers and extending their scoreless innings string to 21 while keeping them from getting a runner beyond second base.

Podres (15-13) had given up only the two hits and hadn't permitted a runner past first base when Oliver connected for the clincher.

In the clubhouse, the managers of the playoff participants pulled their respective thoughts together and made these comments:

Al Dark of San Francisco: "I've never seen a club come back like this one—a club that was counted out so much. But this thing isn't over yet."

Walt Alston of Los Angeles: "Well, we can't back into it now. This time we've got to win it ourselves."

That's been the Dodger story in all three previous playoffs. The Dodgers lost to St. Louis in 1946, lost to the Giants in 1951 and defeated Milwaukee in 1959, going on to capture the world series.

Meanwhile, the league's lesser lights pulled down the curtain.

The Reds backed home runs by Jerry Lynch and Gordie Coleman to beat the Phillies.

The Pirates rode Groat's eighth inning bases-loaded double to their victory over the Braves and the Cubs turned back the Mets with the aid of the key eighth inning triple play.

Newburgh Beats Yonkers, 38-0

Jimmy Hill scored three touchdowns and his Newburgh Free Academy mates opened up their grid season with a 38-0 win over visiting Yonkers Central Saturday.

Hill, an All-DUSO selection last season, tallied on runs of 70, 4 and 55 yards. Charles Tudor hit paydirt twice with 20 and 15 yard scampers and John Rizzuto ran 18 yards for the final tally.

The line score:
Newburgh 18 14 0 6—38
Yonkers 0 0 0 0—0

Giants, LA Playoff Brings Back Memories

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The players are different and the home cities of the two clubs have changed but it was 1951 all over again for the Giants and Dodgers as these two arch rivals engaged in the opener of another post-season playoff for the National League pennant.

Just as it was 11 years ago, it was the Giants who overhauled the Dodgers. The Giants, managed by Alvin Dark, the '51 team captain, didn't have to make up as much ground this time, but in some ways, the Dodger collapse was even greater.

The 1951 Dodgers dissipated a 1 1/2-game lead of mid-August but it was due to a tremendous Giants' surge rather than a Dodger foldup. This time the Dodgers, as even their manager admitted, had no one to blame but themselves.

Lead Dwindles

They had held the lead since July 7 and at one time, on Aug. 9, were 5 1/2 games in front of the Giants. Only a week ago the Dodgers led the Giants by four games with but seven to play. They lost six of those seven. The

Lead Dwindles

Giants won five of their seven to make up the four-game difference. The double crusher came Sunday when the Giants nipped Houston 2-1 on an eighth-inning home run by Willie Mays and St. Louis blanked the Dodgers 1-0 on an eighth-inning home run by catcher Gene Oliver.

Johnny Podres pitched brilliantly, permitting only five hits, but lost the hurling duel to Curt Simmons.

Dodger Manager Walter Alston, trying desperately to hide his disappointment, refused to blame the Dodger collapse on tenesons.

Alston named Sandy Koufax, the southpaw strikeout sensation to pitch today's opener against the Giants, after having been informed that the Giants planned to start Billy Pierce, the veteran left-hander.

Koufax had won 14 of 20 decisions, all his victories coming in the first half of the season. He recently returned to the starting rotation after being sidelined since July 17 with a circulatory disorder in the forefinger of his pitching hand.

The Giants and Dodgers fought evenly during the regular season, each winning nine games. The Giants, however, won six of the last seven from the Dodgers.

A 221 Average

Big Jake Charter, the Poughkeepsie laughing boy, took a big lead after the first round of the Hudson Valley Bowling Proprietors Tournament with a blistering 1782 for the first eight games.

Rolling yesterday on Lanes 1-16 at the Bowlerama, Jake unleashed games of 215, 178, 220, 233, 194, 267, 258, and 217 for his total. The 1782 comes to an average of a little more than 221.

Phil Versace, another Poughkeepsie veteran, is in second place with a 1687 total. He did his rolling at Mardi-Bob in the Bridge City.

A total of 93 bowlers are taking part in the eliminations, which will continue for two more weeks. Then the high 12 will compete in head-to-head matches with the winner being decided by the Petersen Point system.

Bowling yesterday took place at three different establishments and the keggers will change places the next two weeks, rolling once in each house.

Following Charter and Versace, all with averages better than 200 are Nels Linell, Newburgh, 1646; G. Tounpoune, Beacon, 1637; John Martini, Newburgh, 1611 and Tom Carline, Kingston, 1609.

Others in the top 26 are Jim Lavery, Poughkeepsie, 1598; Joe Mazzacane, Newburgh, 1598; Al J. Crisci, Newburgh, 1596; Ed Gordon, Newburgh, 1595; Joe Cervone, Newburgh, 1593; John Ellis, Middletown, 1582; Kildy Corrado, Kingston, 1574; Jim Lawson, Newburgh, 1574; George Baird, Poughkeepsie, 1570; Jack Ferraro, Kingston, 1567; Art Scott, Middletown, 1559; Chris Gallo, Kingston, 1558; John Ferraro, Kingston, 1557; Gerald Wich, Walden, 1556; Jim Torelli, Middletown, 1554; Tony Mack, Newburgh, 1542; Gordie Bultin, Middletown, 1552; Len Sickler Jr., Kingston, 1531; Sal Troup, Warwick, 1531 and Frank Bandiero, Walden, 1531.

Beacon Defeats Highland, 7-0

Fullback Murray Milligan tallied from 21 yards out in the first period and then Beacon High used a strong defense to beat Highland, 7-0, in a DCSL tilt Saturday at the Southern Dutchess County gridiron.

The touchdown was set up when Beacon recovered a fumble deep in Highland territory. After Milligan's jaunt, quarterback Mike Devine bucked over for the PAT.

Highland reached the one in the third period but the home side rose to the occasion and stopped the winless visitors, who have dropped two straight circuit decisions.

Kisia Alenja Leads Hawks At Danbury

Kisia Alenja, a foreign exchange student from Kenya, Africa, scored two goals to pace the New Paltz State Teachers College Hawks to a 3-1 victory at Danbury in the opening soccer game of the season Saturday.

Alenja broke the deadlock at the 16 minute mark of the first period with a boot from close range. New Paltz had dominated the action until the goal and the Hawks finished the period with 12 shots at the Danbury goalie while Tom Clarke of the visitors was asked to make only three saves.

After a scoreless second period, the home side knotted the count with a goal early in the third stanza. Then Al Miller's boys took the lead midway in the fourth quarter when Richie Lotze, the Elmont, L. I. flash, dribbled the length of the field and put one into the net.

Two minutes later Alenja clinched the victory with his second goal. The Hawks, who had 12 saves while the New Paltz boys peppered the Danbury goalie with 48 shots, in addition to the three which went by him.

The Hawks were aided by 200 students from the campus, who made the trip to Danbury. They didn't come home disappointed.

Coach Miller's squad will host Oneonta State on Saturday at 2 p. m.

Redskins Still Pace NFL Eastern Circuit

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Green Bay Packers and Detroit Lions will find out who's boss of the National Football League's Western Conference in a hurry, but who (and don't laugh) is going to figure out how to stop the Washington Redskins?

The Redskins lead the Eastern Conference today after their second straight upset victory, a 24-14 pasting of St. Louis Sunday, for a 2-0-1 record that includes a 2-0 win against Dallas. Los Angeles' winless Rams (0-3), get the next chance, but the Redskins must be favored (no snickers, please) after victories over the likes of the Cleveland Browns and Cards.

The Packers and Lions, both with 3-0 marks, play in Green Bay Wis., next week. The defending champion Packers disposed of the Chicago Bears' first place dreams in a 49-0 lacing Sunday, while Detroit did the same to Baltimore with a 29-20 victory. Both losers are now 2-1.

In other games, the New York Giants moved into second place in the Eastern Conference with a 31-27 victory over Pittsburgh (1-2); Cleveland (1-2) was upset for the second straight week, this time by Philadelphia's Eagles, 23-7; and the Rams lost to Dallas, 27-17, and San Francisco won its first, 21-7 over Minnesota.

Yanks Want to Play Best Club In the Series

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—"We want to play the best club, and I guess we'll find out, pretty soon which club that is."

That was the reaction of Ralph Houli, manager of the New York Yankees, to the news that the Los Angeles Dodgers and San Francisco Giants would have a best-of-three playoff starting today to determine his club's World Series opponent.

"No, I don't think it will be a break for us," said Houli. "I can't see where the playoff could hurt the National League unless the winner has to overpitch his bullpen."

"The team that wins will come into the series loose. The winner will feel 'Well, we're in it and we're just happy to be here.' They should be in a terrific frame of mind."

The Yanks skipper said he would not announce his pitching plans or batting order until the day before the series. However, it was an open secret that Whitey Ford, who has not allowed a run in 32 consecutive innings for a series record, would open, followed by Ralph Terry and Bill Stafford.

Don Fullmer in Garden Fight

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The heavyweight division goes into the corner and the lighter boxers take over this week with welterweight champion Emile Griffith meeting Don Fullmer of West Jordan, Utah, Saturday night in one of the most interesting pairings at New York's Madison Square Garden.

Griffith, 24, is thinking of going into a heavier class. He has agreed to box Teddy Wright of Detroit in Vienna, Oct. 17 for the recently activated junior middleweight (154 pounds) crown.

The non-title 10-round match with Fullmer, younger brother of Gene Fullmer, the National Boxing Association's middleweight champ, will give Griffith a chance to test his power against a 160-pounder.

Dallas Texans Still Unbeaten in AFL Play

They say bad things come in threes. But not for the Dallas Texans in the American Football League this year. It's three good things for them.

First, Coach Hank Stram has come up with the quarterback he's been looking for the past two seasons in Len Dawson. Also, to go with the former Purdue ace's pinpoint passing Dallas continues to get the running from Abner Hayes.

And third, Stram's once-questionable defense now is rated as the league's best.

Put 'em all together, and they spell first place in the Western Division with a 3-0 mark after Sunday's 41-21 blasting of the Buffalo Bills, who are winless in four games.

Denver (3-1) continued its surge in the West with a solid 32-10 victory over New York (2-2) while rookie John Hadl led San Diego (2-2) to a 42-33 victory over Oakland (0-3). Houston and Boston were not scheduled.

Runnels Wins Hitting Crown

NEW YORK (AP)—Pete Runnels of the Boston Red Sox captured his second American League batting championship Sunday as Mickey Mantle's belated bid for his second title fell five points short.

Runnels, veteran first baseman, sat out both ends of the double-header against Washington because of the flu and finished with a .326 average. Mantle collected two hits in three tries in his final game and wound up at .321. The New York Yankees' star outfielder barely qualified for title consideration, finishing with the minimum 502 total appearances.

Runnels won his first batting crown in 1960 with a .320 mark. Mantle took it in 1956 with a .333 average.

In the National League, Tommy Davis of the Los Angeles Dodgers holds a five-point lead over Cincinnati's Frank Robinson. The Reds' outfielder collected two safeties in three at bats in his final game Sunday and lifted his average to .342.

Davis is batting .347. However, his performance in the best-of-three playoff against San Francisco will count in the regular season records.

Harmon Killebrew of the Minnesota Twins won the American League home run and runs batted in titles. He slammed 48 homers and drove in 126 runs.

Willie Mays of San Francisco clinched his second National League home run crown by smashing his 47th. Hank Aaron of Milwaukee finished second with 45.

DINUBA, Calif.—Wayne Thornton, 172, Fresno, knocked out Pete Gonzales, 172, Los Angeles, 4.

Indictments Are Listed in Report By Grand Jury

Nine open indictments, four sealed indictments and three dismissals were reported by the Grand Jury in a report to County Judge Raymond J. Mino Friday.

The Grand Jury found the jail and sheriff's department in good order but referred to the Grand Jury room as the "forgotten room" which was far from being clean, the air conditioner was noisy and in need of repairs and it was suggested that another air conditioner be installed.

Parking for Grand Jurors also came in for criticism and it was suggested that stickers or cards be issued to Grand Jurors for parking. A note of pleasure was expressed over the erection of a fire-escape to the Grand Jury room and the installation of elevator service.

The Grand Jury was also critical of the length of time which the Grand Jurors had to serve and suggested that the time limit be modified to three months. They suggested that the judge inform them at the beginning of the term before excuses were exercised as to the time they might be required to serve. The last grand jury was in session six months.

Described as "inadequate" was the women's rest rooms. The resolution commended Sheriff Bell and his staff for the condition in which the jail was maintained, praised the district attorney and his staff, the court officials and Judge Mino for his comprehensive charge to the Grand Jury.

3 Persons Hurt In Rt. 52 Crash

Three persons were injured at 8:10 p. m. Saturday as the result of a three-car collision which occurred on Route 52 at the intersection of Recreation Park Road, Pine Bush.

Ellenville Troopers John Hutton and Jerry DeLong reported the vehicles were operated by Joseph Weeden, 25, William Drexel, 27, and Perry Heath, 29, all of Pine Bush.

Injured were Weeden, who was treated at Horton Memorial Hospital, Middletown, for lacerations of the forehead; Patrick Pryor, 18, of Pine Bush, a passenger in Weeden's car, lacerations of the scalp, and Donald Papini, 35, of Pine Bush, a passenger in Drexel's car, who was treated for lacerations of the forehead.

Trooper Hutton said Weeden was driving west on Route 52 and attempting a left turn into Recreation Park Road, when his car was struck by Drexel's east-bound vehicle, which reportedly continued on and struck the Hetath car.

Four Pay Fines For Pheasants Out of Season

Accused of possessing two pheasants in their automobile on Sunday, four men were charged with violation of the State Conservation Law by Highland state police.

Troopers reported two pheasants were found on the floor of the car occupied by the men when it was stopped on Route 9W near New Paltz. The men were identified as Joseph Caccace, 43, of 588 Seneca Street, Ridgewood, L. I.; Raymond Ralfe, 19, of 2424 Nostrand Avenue; Anthony Sinacori, 22, of 1204 East 47th Street, and Richard Pensabene, 19, of 1622 44th Street, all Brooklyn.

Highland troopers reported Game Protector Albert Roberts, of Highland, assisted in the investigation.

Rocky's Message Is Published in Board's Booklet

Governor Nelson A. Rockefeller said in a message published in a New York State Workmen's Compensation Board booklet:

"The handicapped do not expect preferential treatment, but they do have a right to ask that they be judged on their abilities, not their disabilities."

Governor Rockefeller also praised the board's new emphasis on rehabilitation and expansion of its program of restoring the disabled worker to employability and employment.

Employers who have been encouraged to hire handicapped employees may learn of its advantages in a new booklet prepared for free distribution by the Workmen's Compensation Board.

The booklet, "What Every Employer Should Know About New York's Second Injury Law," contains a message from Governor Rockefeller and a forward by Colonel S. E. Senior, chairman of the board.

Requests for the booklet, by mail or telephone, will be honored at the Board's Executive Offices, 50 Park Place, New York 7, or its five regional offices—at 1949 North Broadway, Albany 4; 221 Washington Street, Binghamton; 210 Franklin Street, Buffalo 2; 155 Main Street West, Rochester 14, and State Office Building, Syracuse 2.
